3. SPOT THE KINDNESS

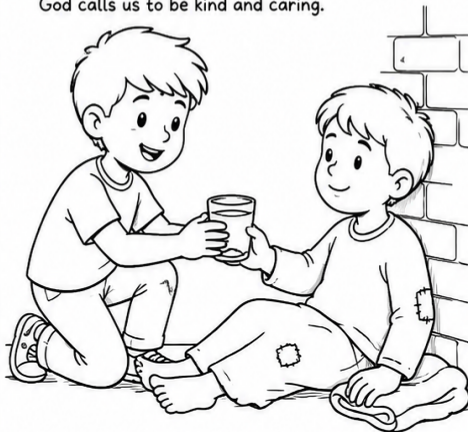

Check the boxes next to the ways we can follow what Psalm 41 teaches.

- ☐ Help someone who is sick.
- ☐ Share food with someone in need.
- ☐ Ignore people who are hurting.
- ☐ Pray for others when they are sad.
- ☐ Be a good friend who can be trusted.

2. COLOR THE PICTURE

God calls us to be kind and caring.

4. DRAW AND WRITE

Draw a picture of you showing kindness to someone. Write a sentence about it.

MEMORY VERSE

"Blessed is the one who considers the poor!
In the day of trouble the Lord delivers him."
– Psalm 41:1

LET'S PRAY

Dear Lord, thank You for caring for us.
Help me to be kind and to help others
just like You teach me. Amen.

Take-Home Summary:

David praises God for caring for people who are kind and help others. He trusts God even when he is sick, sad, and when people are unkind to him. David knows that God never leaves His faithful children and always keeps His promises.
