

User Agreement for On-Demand Report Generation and Address Tracking via Telegram Bot

1. Introduction

This User Agreement ("Agreement") governs the use of Scorechain's Telegram bot services, including on-demand report generation, address tracking alerts, and referral program. By using these services and completing payment, you agree to the terms of this Agreement. This bot is not affiliated with or endorsed by Telegram Messenger Inc.

2. Services Provided

Scorechain offers:

- On-demand report generation: Real-time transaction analysis resulting in a PDF report ("Report") following successful payment.
- Address tracking: Notifications via Telegram when a tracked address sends or receives transactions.

All services are for informational purposes only and do not constitute legal, financial, or compliance advice.

3. Report Access and History

Reports are generated once per payment. They cannot be regenerated. You will retain access to the last report generated, which is stored for your reference but not associated with any user account.

4. Payment and Fees

Payment is required at the time of service and processed via a third-party payment provider. By using the service, you agree to that provider's terms.

- All fees are non-refundable.
- Once a Report is generated, no claims for refunds or reversals will be accepted.

5. Referral Program

Invite your friends using a unique referral link and earn:

- 1 FREE report for each friend who completes a purchase.
- Your friend receives 20% off their first package.

Referral rewards are subject to validation by Scorechain. Abuse (self-referrals, fake accounts, fraudulent usage) will result in disqualification and termination of access to the service. Scorechain reserves the right to change or end the program at any time without notice.

6. User Conduct and Prohibited Uses

Users must not:

- Use the services for illegal or unethical purposes, including fraud, money laundering, or criminal activity.
- Reverse engineer, replicate, redistribute, or alter the Telegram bot, Reports, or alerts.
- Use Reports or alerts for commercial or resale purposes. They are for personal use only.

7. Data Privacy and Security

Scorechain is not liable for damages resulting from events outside its control, including force majeure.

9. Termination

This is a one-time, on-demand service. Once the Report is delivered or tracking alerts activated, the Agreement ends automatically. Scorechain may suspend or terminate access to the bot for any misuse or breach of these terms.
