Position

Theology Teacher: Long Term Substitute (Potential for Later Hire)

Starting in March of 2026 - Part-time - 4/8 carries
Catholic Central High School, Grand Rapids, MI

Description

Teachers of Theology at Catholic Central are student-centered, growth-minded professionals who help students develop a deeper knowledge of the Catholic faith and its relevance throughout their lives, develop a greater love of God, and recognize the dignity of all people and the value of all creation. Teachers will help students reflect upon their service to others in response to Christ's call for justice and be people of conscience motivated by the Holy Spirit.

Primary Responsibilities:

In addition to content teaching, the selected candidate will:

- Work as a minister of the Catholic faith and uphold values in word and action.
- Collaborate with the head Campus Minister and team in implementing the goals of the Campus Ministry program.
- Pursue professional growth and commit to being a lifelong learner.
- Actively participate in staff meetings, professional development, and other school wide opportunities.
- Be flexible in scheduling and responsive to student and school needs.
- Implement curricula in collaboration with fellow team members.
- Adapt lessons to reach all learners.
- Further students' reading, writing, and critical thinking skills.
- Develop and administer authentic assessments that evaluate content knowledge.
- Employ technology as a learning tool.
- Maintain classroom decorum, encouraging orderly and stimulating discussions and student participation.
- Provide support both in the classroom setting and during established office hours.
- Contribute to the school community outside of the classroom.

Job Qualifications:

The Theology Teacher will be a person who has a dynamic personality, is organized, well rounded, engaging, and who seeks growth and collaboration inside and outside of the classroom. Additionally, they will:

- Background in Catechesis preferred.
- Hold a degree in Roman Catholic theology preferred.
- Exhibit a strong interest in and concern for quality teaching, ideally with previous teaching experience.
- Be a practicing Catholic who demonstrates an ability and commitment to furthering the Catholic mission and identity of the school.
