Location: Grand Rapids Catholic Central High School – Grand Rapids, Michigan

Reports To: Athletic Director and Head Boys Basketball Coach

About Catholic Central

Grand Rapids Catholic Central is a premier Catholic college-preparatory school committed to developing student-athletes who excel in faith, academics, athletics, and service. With a rich tradition of basketball success, our program strives to develop young men of character while competing at the highest level.

Why Catholic Central Basketball?

Catholic Central Basketball is one of Michigan's premier high school programs, having captured numerous conference and regional championships while competing consistently at the state level. This position offers an opportunity to help shape the next generation of Cougar basketball players while contributing to a program built on tradition, excellence, and faith.

Position Summary

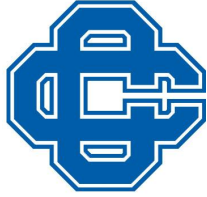

Grand Rapids Catholic Central is seeking a passionate and energetic Sub-Varsity Boys Basketball Coach to join our basketball staff. The successful candidate will play a vital role in developing student-athletes and preparing them for success within one of the state's premier basketball programs. This coach will work closely with the Head Coach to teach basketball fundamentals, reinforce program standards, and cultivate a culture of excellence, accountability, and servant leadership.

Responsibilities

- Plan and conduct daily practices for the sub-varsity team.
- Teach and develop basketball fundamentals, offensive and defensive concepts, and game strategy.
- Foster a positive, competitive environment focused on player development and team success.
- Support the philosophy, culture, and expectations established by the Head Boys Basketball Coach.
