

DO YOUR WORK POLICY

The Company expects all employees to perform their respective job duties and responsibilities in a punctual and professional matter. This means that each employee is expected to be in the office or at a project site, ready to work, at their starting time each day and remaining at work and on task for the duration of their scheduled shift.