From planning a date to simply indulging in some tasty sushi, let's explore the yummiest spots together. Because, really, who doesn't love a good sushi adventure, right?

01.

Lima Nikkei Izakaya

Lima Nikkei Izakaya, offers Peruvian cuisine with a Japanese touch. Let me start by saying that I was absolutely blown away by the presentation, flavors of their food and service! What sets them apart is their focus on the fusion of Peruvian and Japanese culinary traditions. It's a true celebration of two cultures coming together. The attention to detail in the presentation of each dish was truly remarkable. Each plate was like a work of art, with vibrant colors that showcased the culinary craftsmanship behind the cuisine.

02.

Tazu

Tazu Antwerp is known for its amazing sushi in a cozy setting. Watch the chefs at work in the open kitchen. Located in one of the city's oldest houses, designed by Axel Vervoordt, it's simple yet elegant. Don't miss their tasty Horio cocktail! Whether you're at the sushi counter or in the restaurant, the place is filled with handmade ceramics and cool art, making it a great spot for a delicious experience.

03.

KATO

KATO restaurant serves up awesome sushi. They've got all the usual stuff like sushi, sashimi, and temaki, but they also have some really fresh and tasty suggestions. The food is just plain delicious, simple but full of flavor.

05.

Ko'uzi

Experience the creative Eastern flavors at Ko'Uzi Sushi in the heart of Antwerp. Chef-owner Junko Kawada, pleasantly surprised by the recent recognition, has been delighting customers for nearly fifteen years. Known for inventive sushi, she offers unique treats like a sushi twist on the popular Belgian 'tomate crevette' and smoked eel with beetroot. A must-try is their tuna tartare with basil and crunchy quinoa. Since the pandemic, they've shifted to lunch hours only, ensuring a delightful midday dining experience. Perhaps ideal for your business lunch?
