Looking for a more responsive accountant?

Good accountancy should come with clear answers, practical support and people who take the time to understand your business. Let's have a conversation.

Accounts, Bookkeeping & VAT • Business & Personal Tax • Payroll • Company Secretarial

Supporting businesses in Hull and East Yorkshire.

What we can take off your hands

Running a business comes with enough to think about. We're here to help make the financial and administrative essentials easier to manage, giving you more time to focus on what matters.

Accounts, Bookkeeping & VAT

Keeping on top of the numbers shouldn't take you away from running your business. From annual accounts and everyday bookkeeping to VAT returns and management information, we can help keep everything organised and easier to understand.

Payroll

Payroll takes care and attention, and deadlines don't wait. We can support your regular payroll processing and employer responsibilities, giving you more time to concentrate on your people and your business.

Business & Personal Tax

Tax obligations can feel complicated, but conversations about them shouldn't be. We help with corporation tax, Self Assessment and tax planning, explaining what matters and helping you make informed decisions.

Company Secretarial

Company administration is easy to push down the list until something needs attention. We can assist with registered office arrangements and Companies House correspondence, helping you keep important matters organised.

Not sure what support you need? We'd be happy to talk it through.

Your Accountant should be someone you can talk to

Waiting too long for answers, struggling with your numbers or not getting the support you need? It might be time for a different approach.

At Kaizen, good accountancy starts with a conversation.

Clear Communication

We listen, understand your business and explain things clearly, so you can ask questions and plan with confidence.

Practical, reliable support

Dependable help with everyday responsibilities and important business decisions.

Changing Accountants doesn't have to be difficult

Switching can feel like another job on your list. We'll explain the process and help manage the handover.

Your Complimentary Half-Day Business Review

Could your business benefit from a fresh perspective?

Sometimes, an outside perspective can help identify opportunities you might otherwise overlook.

We'll come to you, take time to understand your business, review your current financial and accountancy arrangements, and discuss what's working well and where improvements could be made.

Whether it's accounts, tax, payroll or simply getting clearer financial information, we'll explore how Kaizen could make running your business a little easier.

No pressure.
No obligation.

Just practical advice and an opportunity to see how we could help.

Let's have a Conversation!
