ARTISANAL SPIRITS

from Cognac and its surroundings

Discover four must-visit artisanal houses around Cognac, each with its own unique story and expertise.

Bache-Gabrielsen, a French-Norwegian house founded in 1905, is renowned for its distinctively styled cognacs and offers refined tours and tastings.

Les Frères Moine, a young and innovative house, blends tradition and modernity with a range of cognacs, gins, and liqueurs — even offering a unique escape game experience in their aging cellars.

Fanny Fougerat, a passionate independent producer, crafts signature cognacs and welcomes guests for intimate, authentic visits.

Lastly, Citadelle, a gin distillery located at Château de Bonbonnet, offers a deep dive into local aromatic botanicals and delicate tasting sessions. Other artisanal houses, such as Belle de Brillet, invite you to enjoy unique experiences around their signature pear liqueur — perfect for discovering the true spirit of the region through rich and authentic moments.

CREATIVE ACTIVITIES

wood carving, painting & art

In the elegant and inspiring setting of our historic mansion, the Monnet Art Gallery can host tailor-made creative activities for your professional events upon request.

Depending on your wishes, it is possible to organize:

- Painting or drawing workshops led by qualified artists
- An introduction to wood carving, in collaboration with Julien Chevreux, a skilled artisan sculptor

These artistic moments offer a unique and refined break, ideal for strengthening team cohesion or simply enriching the experience of your participants during seminars or exclusive events.

EXCEPTIONAL FLAVORS & CHARENTAIS TERROIR

A selection of authentic experiences to awaken your team's taste buds

THE ESSENTIALS OF THE CHARENTAIS TERROIR

iconic artisans, local values, authenticity

Between coast and countryside, the Charente region is full of gastronomic treasures. Marennes Oléron oysters, raised in the famous “claires,” share the spotlight with imperial shrimp, trout, and Gensac-la-Pallue caviar, all enhanced by a young, fruity Cognac.

But the Charente land also holds its own gems. The truffle reveals subtle aromas, perfectly in harmony with those of Cognac.

Saffron, the local “red gold,” completes this authentic sensory experience, ideal for lovers of exceptional products.

OUR CSR COMMITMENTS

green key 2025

Hôtel Chais Monnet & Spa earns the Green Key 2025 certification!

We are proud to announce that our establishment has been awarded the prestigious Green Key 2025 label, an international recognition of our commitment to the environment and sustainable development.

The jury highlighted:

- The rigor of our environmental approach, with 80% of the Green Key criteria already implemented.
- Our concrete initiatives, such as the installation of a dual-flow ventilation system for more responsible energy management.
- Our ambition and exemplary role, positioning us as a source of inspiration for other establishments.

This distinction also reflects our commitment to responsible dining, with dishes including vegetarian options, prepared from products sourced from local producers, as well as a selection of French and regional wines—offering a culinary experience that is both delicious and engaged.

This label attests to our determination to reduce our environmental impact while providing you with an unforgettable and planet-friendly stay.
