To Whom It May Concern:

This letter serves as official recognition that the holder of this letter will be attending the Folk Alliance International Conference as an Unpaid Delegate. The conference will be held January 27–31, 2027, at:

Hilton Chicago
720 South Michigan Avenue
Chicago, IL 60605
United States

The conference is a professional networking, development, and showcase event for artists, agents, managers, record labels, presenters, and other music industry representatives. This is not a public event.

Artists participating in industry showcases are not remunerated for their performances. All delegates are required to register for the conference and are responsible for their own airfare, meals, accommodations, and other personal expenses.

The Folk Alliance International Conference is the world's largest gathering of the folk music industry and community, welcoming more than 2,800 delegates from approximately 35 countries. Attendees include artists, agents, managers, radio DJs, publishers, publicists, media representatives, festival organizers, and concert presenters.

The conference represents a diverse range of musical traditions and genres, including Appalachian, Americana, Blues, Bluegrass, Celtic, Cajun, Indigenous, Latin, Global Roots, Traditional, and Singer-Songwriter music.

Folk Alliance International (FAI) is a registered 501(c)(3) nonprofit membership organization with more than 3,000 members worldwide. FAI's mission is to serve, strengthen, and engage the global folk music community through preservation, presentation, and promotion.

Thank you,
