Reminder: Quadlogic Billing Services Transitioning to Metergy Solutions

Dear Valued Customer,

As previously shared, Quadlogic's Billing Services will be transitioning to Metergy Solutions in June 2026. You will continue to receive updates as we move closer to the transition.

What's staying the same:

- Your account information and payment options.
- Our commitment to accurate billing and reliable service.

What's changing:

- Beginning June 2026, you will start to see the Metergy Solutions name and logo on your bills.
- Our website and related resources will gradually transition to Metergy Solutions.

No action is required at this time, and your service and billing will continue uninterrupted.

If you have any questions, please review our FAQ at <https://www.quadlogic.com/quadlogic-rebrand-residents2>.

Thank you for your continued trust. We look forward to serving you as Metergy Solutions.

Sincerely,

Quadlogic Controls
