Administrative Citation Process

Administrative Citations

City of Corona Municipal Code Section 1.08.130 provides for the issuance of Administrative Citations for Municipal Code Violations. There are three levels of citations that can be issued progressively for a violation. The fines are per violation and are cumulative.

An administrative citation will be issued when a case has reached the point where it is clear that voluntary abatement is not going to be obtained.

Rights of Appeal

You have the right to appeal an administrative citation no later than ten (10) calendar days from the date of issuance of the citation. An appeal must be made in writing and submitted to the Citation Processing Center at PO Box 7275, Newport Beach, CA 92658, along with the payment for the fine. An appeal request, if approved, will result in an administrative hearing. Administrative hearing forms can be requested by phone, email or in person at City Hall. The administrative hearing will follow the procedures set forth in Section 1.08.160 of the Corona Municipal Code.

Failure of the responsible person to properly file a written appeal within the above stated ten (10) calendar days shall constitute a failure to exhaust his or her administrative remedies.

How to Pay Fine

The amount of the fine is indicated on the front of the administrative citation. The total amount of the fine shall be paid to the City of Corona within thirty (30) calendar days from the date of issuance of the administrative citation. Payment of the fine shall not excuse or discharge any continuation or repeated occurrence of the city code violation(s) that is the subject of the administrative citation.

Consequences of Failure to Pay the Fine

The failure of the responsible person to pay the fine assessed by the administrative citation will result in the City using all available legal means to collect any past due fines and other related costs.

Consequences of Failure to Correct Violation(s)

If the violation(s) is/are not corrected within the time frame specified on the administrative citation, another administrative citation may be issued to you for the same or increased amount, a criminal citation may be issued or a nuisance abatement action may be taken against you.
