CMC Section 17.91.110

Precise Plan Time limit

(A) Before any permit is approved by the decision-making entity (such as Planning Commission or Planning Director as applicable) the decision-making entity shall establish a time limit within which the permit must be utilized.

(B) For permits associated with tentative tract maps, the time limit shall be concurrent with the life of the tentative tract map. If the tentative tract map expires, the associated permit shall also expire. If such tentative tract map is approved as a final map, the new time limit on the associated permit shall be two years from the date of map recordation.

(C) For all other permits, a time limit of two years shall be assumed unless some other period is established by the decision-making entity at the time the permit is approved.

(D) The permit must be utilized, or if the permit involves a building, construction must be commenced and carried on diligently to completion of at least one usable unit, prior to the expiration of the time limit. If the time limit expires, any privilege, permit or variance granted shall be deemed to have lapsed.

(E) The decision-making entity shall have the authority to extend the time limit upon a finding of unavoidable delay. Once any portion of the Precise Plan permit is utilized, the other conditions thereof become immediately operative and must be strictly complied with.

11. Notice of Complete/Incomplete Applications

The approval of a development proposal requires the review of plans and technical documents. By signing below the applicant is acknowledging that a development application will be deemed incomplete if it does not include all required plans and technical documents, or includes plans and technical documents that are inaccurate or insufficient. By signing below the applicant also acknowledges that incomplete development applications will not be scheduled for public hearing until which time City staff has received and reviewed all required documents.

12. Authorization & Indemnification

To the fullest extent permitted by law, the applicant shall defend, indemnify and hold the City of Corona and its directors, officials, officers, employees, volunteers and agents free and harmless from any and all claims, demands, causes of action, proceedings, costs, expenses, liabilities, losses, damages or injuries of any kind, in law or equity, in any manner arising out of, pertaining to, or incident to any attack against or attempt to challenge, set aside, void or annul any approval, decision or other action of the City of Corona, whether such approval, decision or other action was by its City Council, Planning and Housing Commission or other board, director, official, officer, employee, volunteer or agent. To the extent that Government Code Section 66474.9 applies, the City will promptly notify the applicant of any claim, action or proceeding made known to the City to which Government Code Section 66474.9 applies and the City will fully cooperate in the defense. The Applicant's obligations hereunder shall include, without limitation, the payment of any and all damages, consultant and expert fees, and attorney's fees and other related costs and expenses. The City shall have the right to retain such legal counsel as the City deems necessary and appropriate. Nothing herein shall be construed to require City to defend any attack against or attempt to challenge, set aside, void or annul any such City approval, decision or other action. If at any time Applicant chooses not to defend (or continue to defend) any attack against or attempt to challenge, set aside, void or annul any such City approval, decision or other action, the City may choose, in its sole discretion, to defend or not defend any such action. In the event that the City decides not to defend or continue the defense, Applicant shall be obligated to reimburse City for any and all costs, fees, penalties or damages associated with dismissing the action or proceeding. If at any time both the Applicant and the City choose not to defend (or continue to defend) any action noted herein, all subject City approvals, decisions or other actions shall be null and void. The Applicant shall be required to enter into any reimbursement agreement deemed necessary by the City to effectuate the terms of this condition.
