Location map

Terroir and location

"Between Pommard and Meursault, Volnay always stands the highest." Its steep, east- to southeast-facing slopes allow the vines to express wines of great finesse and delicacy.

This red wine comes from a parcel with deep, clay-rich soils.

Tasting notes

Our Volnay is a light, perfumed, and fruit-driven wine, offering great pleasure in its youth. Its style is more delicate than powerful, yet it retains an elegant framework.

Food and wine pairing

Its lightness and aromatic intensity make this wine an ideal match for grilled red meats, veal sweetbreads, and moderately strong cheeses.
