*Vi formidler og skreddersyr opptredener i klassisk
og lett musikk til foretrænings og privat bruk*

has been one of the world's leading band conductors over the last 35 years helping some top-class ensembles to artistic and competition success. He has received many awards for his work throughout an array of different countries. The latest accolade was, together with Manger Musikklag, winning the Norwegian Brass Band Championships in February 2025.

He has conducted the Bergen Philharmonic Orchestra, often performing his own creations, had concerts with the Stavanger Symphony orchestra and a spectacular Christmas Concert with the brass and percussion section of Tonhalle Orchestra, Zurich.

He has conducted and recorded with the Norwegian contemporary music ensemble Bit 20 and directed Sjøforsvarets Musikkorps, the professional military band based in Bergen, Norway on various occasions, and the Norwegian Marine band.

He has written and performed various theatre productions in and around Europe, the latest being his one man show "Il Maestro – in the name of Art" premiered in Stavanger.

In addition, Allan has led his own International Conductors' Summer school for the last 15 years both in Holland and England.

He has a deep-seated desire to pass on his experience and a passion to create and perform new ideas or simply re-tell old tales in a new light.
