

Facts & Information

Tintswalo Scops Rest is an exclusive-use Luxury Bush Villa located in the pristine Klaserie Private Nature Reserve, part of South Africa's Greater Kruger region and situated between Balule and the Timbavati with open fences. Ideal for families or small groups, the villa accommodates up to eight guests, offering an intimate and private safari experience. Guests enjoy the dedicated services of a private chef and butler, two daily safari activities in a private game drive vehicle, and full board hospitality. With spacious living areas, a large patio, and a private pool overlooking the wilderness, Tintswalo Scops Rest is the perfect setting for unforgettable bush escapes with all the comforts of home and the luxury of a premier safari lodge. For those seeking a more adventurous and immersive experience, two secluded treehouses can be booked separately. Nestled in the heart of the bush and located 30–40 minutes from the main lodge, the treehouses offer a unique opportunity to connect with nature while still enjoying the exceptional service and dining provided at the main lodge.
