

CREDIT.ORG
Where Financial Freedom Begins

OVERVIEW: DISASTER PREPAREDNESS AND RECOVERY

Disaster Preparedness and Recovery

Download our free full guide to preparing for and recovering from disasters. You'll find tips, advice and guidance for creating your own disaster plan.

- Basic Preparedness
 - Insurance – getting the right kind of coverage for you.
 - Homeowner's
 - Renter's
 - Business
 - Flood Insurance
 - Tips for making insurance more affordable
 - Making claims
 - Settling claims & settlement types
- Home Inventory – basic steps for completing a home inventory.
- Emergency Training – get training to be fully prepared
 - CPR training
 - First Aid training
 - Specialized certificates and training for disasters
- Home Safety Equipment – what every household should have to be prepared
- Targeted Preparedness – Being ready for natural disasters that may strike in your region:
 - Floods
 - Hurricanes
 - Thunderstorms
 - Tornadoes
 - Blizzards/extreme cold
 - Extreme heat
 - Earthquakes
 - Volcanoes
 - Landslides
 - Tsunamis
 - Wildfires
 - Nuclear Plant
 - Hazardous Material
 - Terrorism

Disaster Preparedness and Recovery (cont'd)

- My Hazards Worksheet – a form to evaluate your level of risk of all of the above.
- Preparing an Emergency Kit – a comprehensive list of the supplies you need for any crisis.
- EFFAK (Emergency Financial First Aid Kit) – The documents and info to have on hand to protect your personal finances.
- Evacuation – Being prepared to leave on short notice.
 - Shutting off utilities and services safely
 - What to do when taking shelter
- After the Disaster – your first steps when a disaster comes.
 - Negotiating with lenders and getting assistance
- Avoiding Scams and Fraud
 - Warning signs to beware of after a disaster
 - Best practices during disaster recovery
 - Common post-disaster scams
 - Where to report fraud
- Appendix: Sample home inventory template
- Appendix II: Links and resources

No matter the cause of your distress, whether it's a natural disaster or normal day-to-day expenses, we're here to help with free counseling and education services on demand.

Download the full guide to Disaster Preparedness and Recovery today and call us if you need free, on-demand help from a certified nonprofit counselor.

Disaster Preparedness and Recovery

Credit.org

1825 Chicago Avenue
Suite 240
Riverside, CA 92507

PO Box 5438
Riverside, CA 92517-5438

(800) WISE-PLAN (800) 947-3752

www.credit.org

