RAPTORS NOTES

- The Toronto Raptors defeated the Memphis Grizzlies on Sunday night to earn their first home win of the season and improve to 3-4 overall and 1-2 at Scotiabank Arena. The Raptors will look extend their win streak (Oct. 31 – Nov. 2) when they host the Milwaukee Bucks again for the second game of the season series on Tuesday.
- The Raptors shot 50.6% (45-89) from the field and improve to 2-1 when shooting .500-or-better this season. Toronto also improves to 3-0 when keeping opponents to shooting under 44% this year.
- The Raptors have had a player score 20+ points 15 times this season led by RJ Barrett and Brandon Ingram who have done so in a team-high five games. Barrett scored a game-high 27 points (10-19 FG) – marking a season-high – and finished a game-high +19 on the floor. Ingram finished with 26 points (10-15 FG) and has now scored 20+ points in three consecutive games (Oct. 29 – Nov. 2) and in five of his last six contests.
- Scottie Barnes recorded 19 points and a season-high 12 rebounds for his team-leading third double-double of the season. He also added eight assists a season-high five blocks and one steal in 32 minutes of action. Barnes (82) ranks fourth all-time in double-doubles by a Raptor 24 years of age or younger.
- After going scoreless in his NBA debut, Collin Murray-Boyles has scored in double digits in three of his last four games (Oct. 27 – Nov. 2). He finished with 15 points, a career-high nine rebounds, five assists and three steals in his third straight start. Entering play, Murray-Boyles ranked ninth in scoring average among rookies.

GRIZZLIES NOTES

- With five players on the injury report for tonight's game, including Canadians Zach Edey and Brandon Clarke, the Memphis Grizzlies dropped Sunday evening's contest 117-104 against the Toronto Raptors at Scotiabank Arena. Prior to tonight, the Grizzlies had won five straight games against the Raptors in Toronto. Memphis will now begin a four-game home stand (Nov. 3-9) against the Detroit Pistons, Houston Rockets, Dallas Mavericks, and the Oklahoma City Thunder, respectively.
- Jaren Jackson Jr led Memphis with 20 points and nine rebounds in 32 minutes of play. Jackson Jr is the only Grizzlies player to score in double-digits in all seven games played to start the season. He averaged 26.5 points through two games against the Raptors during the 2024-25 NBA season.
- Santi Aldama led bench scorers with a season-high 15 points (5-14 FG, 2-7 3PT) and recorded four rebounds and two assists in 28 minutes of action.
- Jock Landale and Vince Williams Jr scored 14 points apiece for the Grizzlies. Landale's 14 were three points shy of his season-high (17) and tonight marked the third time he recorded a perfect stat line from the three-point field goal line this season (2-2 3PT). Eight of Williams Jr's 14 points came during the fourth quarter as the Grizzlies tried to make a push down the stretch.
