KEY STAT

The Raptors finished with a 22-to-12 (+10) advantage in turnovers tonight. The 22 turnovers is the most committed by the Cavaliers in this series and the most in the post-season since also committing 22 turnovers May 11, 2025 at Indiana.

RAPTORS NOTES

- The Raptors snapped a 12-game post-season losing streak against the Cavaliers and improve to 1-2 in the series ... The Raptors shot 57.5% (50-87) which is the second-highest field goal percentage in Raptors post-season history ... The Raptors improve to 12 and 3 when shooting 50% or better in the post-season.
- The Raptors outscored the Cavaliers 43-to-23 (+20) in the fourth quarter ... The 43 points is the most points scored in by the Raptors in the fourth quarter this season.
- Scottie Barnes and RJ Barrett both scored game highs of 33 points tonight ... It is the third time in Raptors post-season history that two players have scored 30+ points in the same game joining DeMar DeRozan and Kyle Lowry (May 23, 2016) and Kawhi Leonard & Kyle Lowry (May 15, 2019) ... Barnes and Barrett combined to score or assist on 95 of the Raptors' 126 points tonight.
- Barnes added a game-high 11 assists and added five rebounds, one steal and one block becoming the first Raptor ever to record a 30-10-5 game in the post-season ... Barnes has recorded a career-high in points in three consecutive post-season games and has scored 20+ points in three straight post-season games for the first time.
- Collin Murray-Boyles finished with 22 points and added a game-high eight rebounds in 28 minutes off the bench ... Murray-Boyles joins Andrea Bargnani (Apr. 29 - May 4, 2007) as the only Raptors rookies to score 10+ points in three straight games in the post-season and is the only Raptors rookie to do so off the bench. He is the first Raptors rookie to score 20+ points in the post-season.
- Jamison Battle scored all 14 points (5-5 FG, 4-4 3PT) in nine minutes in the fourth quarter ... Battle is now 10-for-10 from beyond the arc against the Cavaliers this season after going 6-for-6 Oct. 31 at Cleveland.

CAVALIERS NOTES

- Entering tonight, the Cavaliers had won 12-straight playoff games vs. the Raptors, tying the longest post-season winning streak against any opponent in NBA history.
- James Harden led all Cavaliers with 18 points and added four rebounds and four assists in 33 minutes of action ... With his 10th point of the game, Harden (3,958 postseason points) passed Dwyane Wade (3,954 postseason points) for the 12th-most points in NBA postseason history.
- Donovan Mitchell finished with 15 points (7-16 FG, 1-7 3PT) tonight after scoring 32 points and 30 points in Game 1 and 2 respectively ... Mitchell came into play as the sixth-highest points per game scorer in NBA Playoffs history.
- Max Strus led all Cavaliers reserves with 15 points on 5-for-10 shooting, including a team-high four three-point field goals, in 26 minutes off the bench.
