

CCW BOARD MEETING APRIL 10 2025

The meeting began with the Mother of Good Counsel prayer followed by the Pledge of Allegiance.

The Board had previously passed a motion to pay a portion of the newly installed (used) convection oven for the church kitchen. The amount had been adjusted to $1,580.00.

A Pax Christi nominee has been selected and this woman will be interviewed and her bio will be submitted to the Diocese.

Discussion followed regarding the upcoming Sunday Social on April 27 along with a bake sale to be held that same weekend. Times for volunteers for both events were decided, will be submitted for the bulletin, sent out to members via email and respected links. 3 cases of cinnamon rolls have been ordered. Leigh W. will head up the Spring Bake Sale.

Current checkbook balance: $15,483.09

Leadership Commissioner Bridgette A. explained CCW scholarship applications have been sent out to all senior girls belonging to St. Patrick Parish. The return deadline for this application is May 1.

Secretary Leigh W. submitted several receipts for recent purchases including: round green tablecloth, additional glass sugar packet containers, tub for storage, container to hold the glass sugar packet containers, Hub 70 Printing Shop of River Falls printing of stationery, envelopes, stamps and florals for glass vases. Motion was made by Bridgette A. and seconded by Jan R. Motion passed for reimbursement.

Treasurer Nancy S. will research getting a deposit stamp for checks.

Plans for the upcoming May 1st Open Meeting were discussed. A search for a speaker regarding spring flowers has begun. A salad supper, games and prizes will also be included at this meeting.

Respectfully submitted,
Leigh Weiss
CCW Secretary
