20. The following terms apply to all learners enrolled for Homeschool Assistance, including Pre-K–9, GED, American High School and other homeschool programmes supported by Smartschool Academy:
    a. The Parent/Guardian remains ultimately responsible for the Learner's education, homeschool registration, curriculum selection and compliance with all applicable legal and regulatory requirements. Where registration with the relevant Department of Education or other authority is required, it remains the sole responsibility of the Parent/Guardian to complete and maintain such registration.
    b. Smartschool Academy is not the Learner's registered school and does not assume the Parent/Guardian's legal responsibility for the Learner's education. Smartschool provides educational assistance, supervision, guidance, tutoring and support in completing the Learner's chosen homeschool or international education programme.
    c. Where a Learner is registered with an external curriculum, examination body, online school or educational service provider, the applicable provider's own terms, academic requirements, assessment rules and certification requirements remain applicable. Where the Parent/Guardian is responsible for paying the third-party provider directly, these costs are separate from Smartschool fees. This is consistent with the third-party curriculum option already included in the enrolment form.

d. Homeschool and GED programmes may be self-paced. The time required to complete a grade, level, subject, course or qualification will therefore differ from one Learner to another. Smartschool cannot guarantee that a Learner will complete a programme within a particular period.
e. Smartschool Academy does not guarantee marks, academic progress, examination results, promotion, graduation or successful completion of any programme. Results depend on factors including the Learner's ability, effort, attendance, participation, completion of assigned work and compliance with programme requirements.
f. Homeschool Learners may, where permitted by their chosen programme, complete certain lessons, assignments and coursework from home. Parents/Guardians remain responsible for ensuring that work completed away from Smartschool is completed correctly, honestly and within the requirements of the applicable programme.
g. Where an assessment or examination requires formal supervision, invigilation or assessment, the Learner must complete it under the supervision of the required invigilator, assessor or authorised Smartschool personnel. Where Smartschool facilitates such supervised assessments or examinations, they must be completed at the designated Smartschool premises unless otherwise authorised by the applicable examination or curriculum provider.
h. GED examination fees, including official examination or testing fees, are not included in Smartschool Academy's monthly Homeschool Assistance/GED fees and are payable separately by the Parent/Guardian.
i. Smartschool's ability to provide effective assistance depends on the Learner attending regularly, following the programme and timetable provided, completing assigned work and cooperating with Smartschool staff. Smartschool cannot be held responsible for delays in progress caused by absenteeism, incomplete work, refusal to participate or insufficient effort.
j. All Learners attending Smartschool Academy, including Homeschool Assistance, GED, American High School, Afternoon Study and Extra Class Learners, are required to comply with the Smartschool Academy dress code while on the premises and during Smartschool activities.
k. All Homeschool Learners are subject to the same behavioural, disciplinary and operational rules applicable to other Smartschool Learners while attending the centre.

21. By enrolling a Learner for Homeschool Assistance, the Parent/Guardian acknowledges that Smartschool Academy provides an assistance and support service and does not replace the Parent/Guardian, registered curriculum provider, examination body, school or relevant educational authority in respect of their respective responsibilities.
