

Awilco LNG ASA – Appointment of Chief Commercial Officer

Awilco LNG ASA is pleased to announce that Mr. Niels Rigault has been appointed Chief Commercial Officer (CCO) of Awilco LNG ASA. Mr. Rigault brings more than 20 years of experience in shipping, commercial strategy, and asset transactions, including establishing and overseeing trading-related activities as part of broader commercial platforms. He previously served as EVP Commercial at BW LPG, where he led global commercial activities, helped develop the company's LPG trading platform, and contributed to its expansion in India. Earlier, he was a Partner and shipbroker at Inge Steensland, focusing on sale & purchase and newbuilding projects in the gas segment.

The Board is very pleased to have Niels on board as CCO of Awilco LNG. His long and varied experience on the commercial side of shipping and trading will no doubt be an asset to the Company going forward.
