f After four sold out shows at Ottawa Valley Coffee Almonte last December presenting the music of John Prine, the Lanark County quartet of Vicki Brittle, Tyler Craig, Nathan Sloniowski and Jessica Winskell was inspired to continue honouring his music as The Maywoods. The band is named after Prine's hometown of Maywood, Illinois.

📄 The Maywoods are coming to Clayton Hall on Saturday, May 11, with tickets available at TicketsPlease.ca. Doors open at 6:30 p.m., with the licensed event running from 7 to 8:30 p.m. General admission tickets are $19.46 – the year Prine was born – plus processing fees. A limited number of tickets will also be available at the door.

As part of its mission to encourage live music in rural communities, the band is contributing 25 per cent of ticket proceeds to the care and upkeep of the hall.
