CIRCULAR 26/17Contract Month Adjustment

NOTICE : All Members

CATEGORY : Trading

ATTACHMENTS : -

EFFECTIVE DATE : The circular will be effective on Tuesday, 27 October 2026

1. Purpose

This circular is issued to inform all Members regarding the adjustment to the contract month listing schedule for the relevant products. This adjustment is intended to improve liquidity for the relevant products listed below on ACM Exchange.

2. Background

The Exchange regularly reviews its product specifications, including the listed contract months, to ensure that they remain aligned with market needs and developments.

3. Contract Month Adjustment

The Exchange will reduce the number of listed contract months for the products listed below, from four contract months to three contract months. This will be operationalized by letting the immediate contract month expire on its respective Last Trading Day, and ACM will correspondingly not list a new contract month, effecting the above intention to list only 3 contract months going forward.

The following table shows the respective Last Trading Days of the nearest contract months for the relevant listed products.

Product	Contract Code	Contract Month	Last Trading Day
Nano Copper	F-XACM-NCP	November 2026	28 October 2026
Nano Platinum	F-XACM-NPT	January 2027	29 December 2026
Nano Silver	F-XACM-NSI	December 2026	25 November 2026

4. Implementation

All Exchange Members are required to promptly notify Third Parties of this contract month adjustment, review positions and orders affected by the adjustment if required to and comply with all applicable Exchange Rules and risk management directives.

5. Notification to Third Parties

Members shall notify Third Parties of the above circular.
