

What I should already know:		Pillars of Progression	Vocabulary
- London is the capital city of England. - A city is a settlement with different types of buildings, such as houses and shops. - Different types of transport, like cars, buses and trains.		- Location - Place - Human and Physical	London	The capital of England its largest city.
  Red bus  Hire bicycle  Underground train  Black taxi (cab) 			River Thames	A physical feature, running through the city of London and out to the sea.
			city	A centre of population, bigger than a town or village.
			landmark	A famous building or site in a city.
			population	The people who live in a place.
			transport	Vehicles like cars, buses and trains which help us move around a place.
			tourist	A person who visits a place on holiday.
Buckingham Palace (The King's home)  No 10. Downing St (Prime Minister's home)  St Paul's Cathedral  Houses of Parliament 			human or physical features	Things that you can see all around you, like houses or a river.
The London Eye  The Shard  Tower Bridge  Tower of London 			position	The location of a place or feature on a map.
			capital	The largest and main city in a country.