

Salvation Army Homes Complaints Handling Code Self Assessment April 2026

Code provision	Code requirement	Comply: Yes / No	Evidence	Commentary
Section 1: Definition of a complaint
1.2	A complaint must be defined as: 'an expression of dissatisfaction, however made, about the standard of service, actions or lack of action by the landlord, its own staff, or those acting on its behalf, affecting a resident or group of residents.'	Yes	Complaints and Compliments Policy S 2.1	The Complaints and Compliments Policy clearly defines a definition of a complaint, adopting the Housing Ombudsman definition.
1.3	A resident does not have to use the word 'complaint' for it to be treated as such. Whenever a resident expresses dissatisfaction landlords must give them the choice to make complaint. A complaint that is submitted via a third party or representative must be handled in line with the landlord's complaints policy.	Yes	Complaints and Compliments Policy S 2.2	The Complaints and Compliments Policy makes this explicit.
1.4	Landlords must recognise the difference between a service request and a complaint. This must be set out in their complaints policy. A service request is a request from a resident to the landlord requiring action to be taken to put something right. Service requests are not complaints, but must be recorded, monitored and reviewed regularly.	Yes	Complaints and Compliments Policy S 2.6	The Complaints and Compliments Policy outlines our approach to service requests.
1.5	A complaint must be raised when the resident expresses dissatisfaction with the response to their service request, even if the handling of the service request remains ongoing. Landlords must not stop their efforts to address the service request if the resident complains.	Yes	Complaints and Compliments Policy S 2.6.4	The Complaints and Compliments Policy outlines our approach to service requests.
1.6	An expression of dissatisfaction with services made through a survey is not defined as a complaint, though wherever possible, the person completing the survey should be made aware of how they can pursue a complaint if they wish to. Where landlords ask for wider feedback about their services, they also must provide details of how residents can complain.	Yes	CX Feedback Survey Software enables transactional surveys to be undertaken.	Where dissatisfaction is expressed in a CX Feedback survey this is escalated to an appropriate officer for action.
Section 2: Exclusions
2.1	Landlords must accept a complaint unless there is a valid reason not to do so. If landlords decide not to accept a complaint they must be able to evidence their reasoning. Each complaint must be considered on its own merits	Yes	Complaints and Compliments Policy S 2.7	The Complaints and Compliments Policy outlines our approach to not accepting complaints.
2.2	A complaints policy must set out the circumstances in which a matter will not be considered as a complaint or escalated, and these circumstances must be fair and reasonable to residents. Acceptable exclusions include: * The issue giving rise to the complaint occurred over twelve months ago. * Legal proceedings have started. This is defined as details of the claim, such as the Claim Form and Particulars of Claim, having been filed at court. * Matters that have previously been considered under the complaints policy.	Yes	Complaints and Compliments Policy S 2.7.3	The Complaints and Compliments Policy outlines the circumstances where complaints will not be considered.
2.3	Landlords must accept complaints referred to them within 12 months of the issue occurring or the resident becoming aware of the issue, unless they are excluded on other grounds. Landlords must consider whether to apply discretion to accept complaints made outside this time limit where there are good reasons to do so.	Yes	Complaints and Compliments Policy S 2.3	The Complaints and Compliments Policy makes this explicit.
2.4	If a landlord decides not to accept a complaint, an explanation must be provided to the resident setting out the reasons why the matter is not suitable for the complaints process and the right to take that decision to the Ombudsman. If the Ombudsman does not agree that the exclusion has been fairly applied, the Ombudsman may tell the landlord to take on the complaint.	Yes	Complaints and Compliments Policy S 2.7.2	The Complaints and Compliments Policy makes this explicit.
2.5	Landlords must not take a blanket approach to excluding complaints; they must consider the individual circumstances of each complaint.	Yes	Complaints and Compliments Policy S 2.7	The Complaints and Compliments Policy makes this explicit.
Section 3: Accessibility and Awareness
3.1	Landlords must make it easy for residents to complain by providing different channels through which they can make a complaint. Landlords must consider their duties under the Equality Act 2010 and anticipate the needs and reasonable adjustments of residents who may need to access the complaints process.	Yes	Complaints and Compliments Procedure	The Complaints and Compliments Procedure outlines all the channels through which residents can make complaints •Verbally to any Salvation Army Homes employee •By text •By telephone •Social media •By email •Through our website •In writing •Through our Customer Service Centre •Via the Housing Ombudsman
3.2	Residents must be able to raise their complaints in any way and with any member of staff. All staff must be aware of the complaints process and be able to pass details of the complaint to the appropriate person within the landlord.	Yes	Salvation Army Homes internal Hub	All staff are made aware of the complaints process during the staff induction process and have access to all policy and procedures on the staff Hub.

Code provision	Code requirement	Comply: Yes / No	Evidence	Commentary
3.3	High volumes of complaints must not be seen as a negative, as they can be indicative of a well-publicised and accessible complaints process. Low complaint volumes are potentially a sign that residents are unable to complain.	Yes	Complaint volumes are reported as part of the Salvation Army Homes Strategic KPI's.	You said, we did' communications to customers demonstrate actions to improve services, including from complaints to encourage customers to report. Training has taken place to develop a positive complaint culture and the value of learning from complaints.
3.4	Landlords must make their complaint policy available in a clear and accessible format for all residents. This will detail the two stage process, what will happen at each stage, and the timeframes for responding. The policy must also be published on the landlord's website.	Yes	Complaints and Compliments Policy Complaints and Compliments Procedure Complaints Procedure Resident Flowcharts Website	The Complaint and Compliments Policy outlines the two stage process and is available on the website in an accessible format.
3.5	The policy must explain how the landlord will publicise details of the complaints policy, including information about the Ombudsman and this Code.	Yes	Complaints and Compliments Procedure	The Complaints and Compliments Procedure outlines the role of the HOS.
3.6	Landlords must give residents the opportunity to have a representative deal with their complaint on their behalf, and to be represented or accompanied at any meeting with the landlord.	Yes	Complaints and Compliments Policy S 3.4b	The Complaints and Compliments Policy makes this explicit.
3.7	Landlords must provide residents with information on their right to access the Ombudsman service and how the individual can engage with the Ombudsman about their complaint.	Yes	Complaints response letters	Leaflets go out with the responses - HO info and Complaints Roadmap. HOS details are provided on the website and are also provided at the end of stage two complaints. In February 2026 all residents received a flyer detailing How to Make a Complaint and information was given on the role of the Ombudsman.
Section 4: Complaint Handling Staff
4.1	Landlords must have a person or team assigned to take responsibility for complaint handling, including liaison with the Ombudsman and ensuring complaints are reported to the governing body (or equivalent). This Code will refer to that person or team as the 'complaints officer'. This role may be in addition to other duties.	Yes	Complaints and Compliments Policy and Procedure	Salvation Army Homes has a designated Complaints and Disrepair Manager.
4.2	The complaints officer must have access to staff at all levels to facilitate the prompt resolution of complaints. They must also have the authority and autonomy to act to resolve disputes promptly and fairly.	Yes		Complaints and Disrepair Manager, is able to speak to all levels and has the autonomy to make resolve promptly.
4.3	Landlords are expected to prioritise complaint handling and a culture of learning from complaints. All relevant staff must be suitably trained in the importance of complaint handling. It is important that complaints are seen as a core service and must be resourced to handle complaints effectively.	Yes		Complaints performance is discussed at the Leadership Team, who receive reports that explore the learning from complaints. Monthly / quarterly lessons learned report in place.
Section 5: The Complaint Handling Process
5.1	Landlords must have a single policy in place for dealing with complaints covered by this Code. Residents must not be treated differently if they complain.	Yes	Complaints and Compliments Policy S2.4	Salvation Army Homes has a standalone Complaints and Compliments Policy.
5.2	The early and local resolution of issues between landlords and residents is key to effective complaint handling. It is not appropriate to have extra named stages (such as 'stage 0' or 'informal complaint') as this causes unnecessary confusion.	Yes	Complaints Procedure	The Complaints Procedure outlines the two stage approach adopted by Salvation Army Homes.
5.3	A process with more than two stages is not acceptable under any circumstances as this will make the complaint process unduly long and delay access to the Ombudsman.	Yes	Complaints and Compliments Policy	The Complaints Procedure outlines the two stage approach adopted by Salvation Army Homes.
5.4	Where a landlord's complaint response is handled by a third party (e.g. a contractor or independent adjudicator) at any stage, it must form part of the two stage complaints process set out in this Code. Residents must not be expected to go through two complaints processes.	Yes	Complaints and Compliments Policy S 4.5	The Complaints and Compliments Policy makes this explicit.
5.5	Landlords are responsible for ensuring that any third parties handle complaints in line with the Code.	Yes	Complaints and Compliments Policy	The Complaints and Compliments Policy makes this explicit.
5.6	When a complaint is logged at Stage 1 or escalated to Stage 2, landlords must set out their understanding of the complaint and the outcomes the resident is seeking. The Code will refer to this as "the complaint definition". If any aspect of the complaint is unclear, the resident must be asked for clarification.	Yes	Complaint Response Letters	The Complaint Response letters set out our understanding of the complaint.
5.7	When a complaint is acknowledged at either stage, landlords must be clear which aspects of the complaint they are, and are not, responsible for and clarify any areas where this is not clear.	Yes	Complaints acknowledgement letter / email	The Complaint Response letters set out our understanding of the complaint.
5.8	At each stage of the complaints process, complaint handlers must: a. deal with complaints on their merits, act independently, and have an open mind; b. give the resident a fair chance to set out their position; c. take measures to address any actual or perceived conflict of interest; and d. consider all relevant information and evidence carefully.	Yes	Complaints and Compliments Procedure	This is in place. An independent review of complaints is conducted by the Complaints and Disrepair Manager.

Code provision	Code requirement	Comply: Yes / No	Evidence	Commentary
5.9	Where a response to a complaint will fall outside the timescales set out in this Code, the landlord must agree with the resident suitable intervals for keeping them informed about their complaint.	Yes	Complaints and Compliments Policy S 4.2.3	The Complaints and Compliments Policy outlines the approach we will take when a response may fall outside of timescales.
5.10	Landlords must make reasonable adjustments for residents where appropriate under the Equality Act 2010. Landlords must keep a record of any reasonable adjustments agreed, as well as a record of any disabilities a resident has disclosed. Any agreed reasonable adjustments must be kept under active review.	Yes	Complaints and Compliments Policy S 3.5	The Complaints and Compliments Policy outlines our approach to reasonable adjustments and provides examples of what adjustments we will make.
5.11	Landlords must not refuse to escalate a complaint through all stages of the complaints procedure unless it has valid reasons to do so. Landlords must clearly set out these reasons, and they must comply with the provisions set out in section 2 of this Code.	Yes	Complaints and Compliments Policy S 4.2
5.12	A full record must be kept of the complaint, and the outcomes at each stage. This must include the original complaint and the date received, all correspondence with the resident, correspondence with other parties, and any relevant supporting documentation such as reports or surveys.	Yes	Case management records	Complaint case management records are contained with the housing management system.
5.13	Landlords must have processes in place to ensure a complaint can be remedied at any stage of its complaints process. Landlords must ensure appropriate remedies can be provided at any stage of the complaints process without the need for escalation.	Yes		Complaints and Disrepair Manage has the autonomy to remedy a complaint at any stage of the process.
5.14	Landlords must have policies and procedures in place for managing unacceptable behaviour from residents and/or their representatives. Landlords must be able to evidence reasons for putting any restrictions in place and must keep restrictions under regular review.	Yes	Unacceptable Behaviour Policy	Our approach to responding to unacceptable behaviour is detailed within the Policy.
5.15	Any restrictions placed on contact due to unacceptable behaviour must be proportionate and demonstrate regard for the provisions of the Equality Act 2010.	Yes	Complaints and Compliments Policy S 4.6	The circumstances are set out in the Unacceptable Behaviour Policy.
Section 6: Complaints Stages
	Stage 1
6.1	Landlords must have processes in place to consider which complaints can be responded to as early as possible, and which require further investigation. Landlords must consider factors such as the complexity of the complaint and whether the resident is vulnerable or at risk. Most stage 1 complaints can be resolved promptly, and an explanation, apology or resolution provided to the resident.	Yes	Complaints and Compliments Procedure Complaints and Compliments Policy S 4.2	The Designated Complaints Officer makes initial contact with the complainant to identify how they want to be contacted and any adjustments needed.
6.2	Complaints must be acknowledged, defined and logged at stage 1 of the complaints procedure within five working days of the complaint being received.	Yes	Complaints and Compliments Procedure Complaints and Compliments Policy S 4.2.2	The Complaints and Compliments Procedure is aligned to this requirement.
6.3	Landlords must issue a full response to stage 1 complaints within 10 working days of the complaint being acknowledged.	Yes	Complaints and Compliments Procedure Complaints and Compliments Policy S 4.2.2	The Complaints and Compliments Procedure is aligned to this requirement.
6.4	Landlords must decide whether an extension to this timescale is needed when considering the complexity of the complaint and then inform the resident of the expected timescale for response. Any extension must be no more than 10 working days without good reason, and the reason(s) must be clearly explained to the resident.	Yes	Complaints and Compliments Procedure Complaints and Compliments Policy S 4.2.4	The Complaints and Compliments Procedure is aligned to this requirement.
6.5	When an organisation informs a resident about an extension to these timescales, they must be provided with the contact details of the Ombudsman.	Yes	Complaints and Compliments Procedure Complaints and Compliments Policy S 4.2.6	The Complaints and Compliments Procedure is aligned to this requirement.
6.6	A complaint response must be provided to the resident when the answer to the complaint is known, not when the outstanding actions required to address the issue are completed.
