■ ABOUT MICHELE

Michele Locke is a storyteller, podcast host, and advocate for healthy relationships and authentic self-care. She uses her platform to help women recognize red flags, prioritize their wellbeing, and reclaim their confidence.

Her authority comes from over two decades in the courtroom as a judge and family law attorney, where she witnessed firsthand the ways love, betrayal, and healing can shape a life. Today, she brings those lessons to her growing audience through her lovelustlaw podcast and media appearances, creating real conversations that inspire change.

Highlights:

- Former Associate Court Judge that Presided Over Domestic Violence and CPS Courts
- Advocate for Self-Care and Survivor Empowerment
- Running a High-Stakes Complex Litigation Family Law Practice
- Distinctive Podcast Host Providing Unparalleled Legal Insight Behind the Headlines
- Trusted Media Voice with 20,000+ Followers Across Platforms (and Rapidly Growing).

PERSONAL JOURNEY

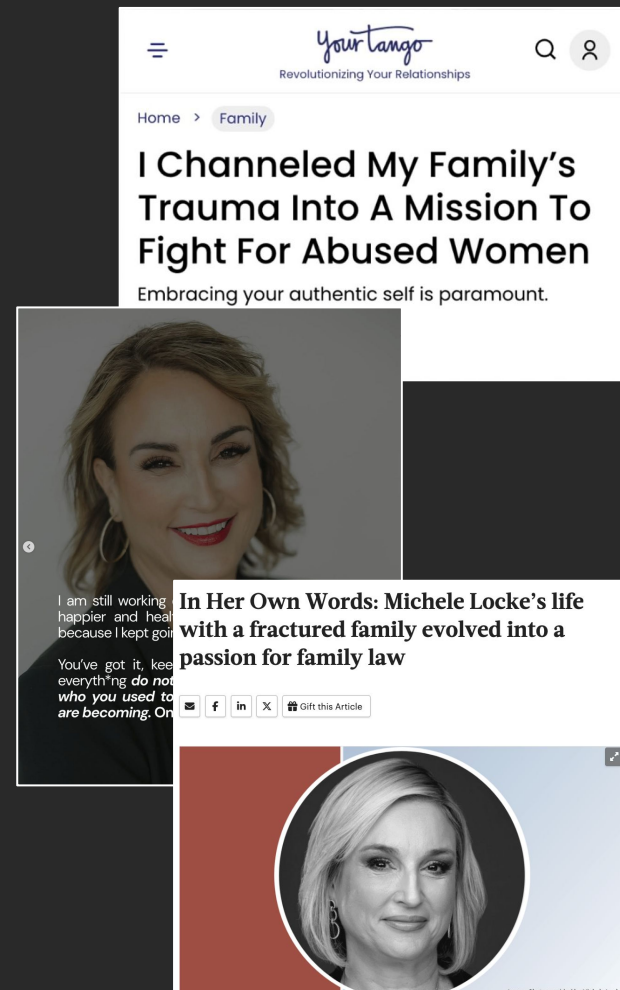

Michele Locke's journey is one of resilience, purpose, and impact. Having grown up in divorced household, where her father's home was marked by abuse, she turned those early hardships into fuel for her life's mission: protecting others from experiencing the same. During her time as a judge, she was particularly attuned to the nuances of cases involving domestic violence, child abuse, stalking, and harassment. For over two decades, she has fought tirelessly in courtrooms as a family law attorney, fiercely advocating for survivors, families, and those without a voice.

Her philosophy is simple: if she can prevent even one more person, child or adult, from enduring what she went through, then she considers her work worthwhile.

Today, Michele has expanded her reach beyond the courtroom through her podcast, lovelustlaw — a wildly successful “true-crime lite” show where she blends legal commentary with sharp insights on modern relationships and cultural red flags in the news. The show has quickly earned rave reviews for its raw honesty and unflinching look at love, betrayal, and healing.

In less than a year, Michele has built a rapidly growing, highly engaged social media following by speaking candidly and unapologetically to women about relationships, resilience, and self-care. Her voice resonates because she doesn't sugarcoat the truth — she tells it as it is, and inspires women to recognize their worth, make bold choices, and reclaim their power.

Michele's story is one of transformation. She is living proof that strength, intelligence, and passion can turn adversity into advocacy, and that raw honesty is the most powerful way to change lives. She is a voice that will not soon be forgotten, and she never forgets to bring her signature red lipstick with her, everywhere she goes.

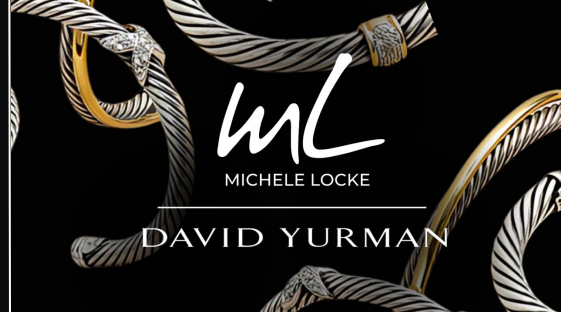

■ PARTNERS

Michele partners with premium lifestyle, wellness, fashion, and non-profit brands to create impactful collaborations that are authentic, empowering, and lasting.

Her work is rooted in celebrating women's strength, encouraging healthy relationships, and prioritizing self-care. These values resonate deeply with her community, creating opportunities for brands to make meaningful connections.

Past collaborations include David Yurman, a partnership built on storytelling and confidence. Now, Michele is expanding to partner with brands who champion women's wellbeing, authenticity, and bold self-expression.

lovelustlaw is a gripping true-crime-meets-courtroom podcast that pulls back the curtain on divorce, custody battles, and domestic violence.

Hosted by the fabulous former judge and family law attorney Michele Locke, the show exposes the shocking truths behind headline-making (and often hidden) cases where love, lust, and law collide.

With unflinching and unfiltered commentary, real-life legal insight, and stories that feel stranger than fiction, Michele takes listeners inside the drama of modern relationships and the justice system's response. It's raw, riveting, and impossible to turn off.
