THE UPSIDE

WITH MARION MACKENZIE
CONVERSATIONS THAT LIGHT UP THE WORLD

SEASON ONE: Faith in Culture & Entertainment; Leadership Development & Impact; Mental, Spiritual & Emotional Healing; Historical Adventure

Visionary producer Mark Joseph unpacks his behind-the-scenes 20-year journey of vision and grit to bring his award-winning film "Reagan" to the screen.

Lynn Eldridge battled bipolar disorder, addiction, depression, hospitalizations, misdiagnosis and therapy for 30 years until finding lasting freedom and healing in Jesus Christ. Today, she is an author, speaker and coach.

How do you go from poverty and fatherlessness to becoming a one of the world's finest drummers, an author, coach, and motivational speaker? Zoro — the legendary "Minister of Groove" — tells it all.

After 30 years trapped in a cult, Paula Mosher Wallace emerged to become global voice of healing, a media producer and a trauma coach, proving how God turns ashes into beauty, healing and purpose.

Dr. Byron Spradlin—global pioneer in worship and creativity—explores how imagination is not just a gift but a divine calling to reflect God's masterpiece within us, expressing the artists we were created to be.

A moving true story of Tim Calhoun's family's journey from the heartbreak of an autism diagnosis to miraculous healing and hope through faith, perseverance, natural therapies, and divine intervention.

From Mafia hitman to minister of the Gospel, Robert Borelli's journey reveals the astonishing power of God's grace to transform even the darkest past into a life of radiant purpose.

Author Michael Garst redefines retirement not as a season of leisure, but as a divine new beginning—a time to deepen faith, serve others, and finish strong in God's purpose.

Set in the turbulent world of King Herod, Chris Cushman's "Herod's Eyes" follows a court spy torn between ambition, love, and faith—revealing what it means to seek wholehearted truth in a world ruled by power, compromise, and the first whispers of the Messiah.
