Discover Villa White Wave, an exceptional property set directly on the beach, with breathtaking views of the Mediterranean from the garden, indoor and outdoor spaces. Its heated swimming pool overlooks the sea, offering an idyllic setting where the water seems to extend the house.

Inside, the villa offers spacious, light-filled rooms, including a living room with sea views, a stylish dining room and a modern kitchen with a central island.

A bedroom with a bed, a large window with curtains, and a porthole window. The room features light green and white striped walls, a red tufted blanket, and a view of a garden through the window.

The villa offers 7 en suite bedrooms, each with its own en suite bathroom, guaranteeing each occupant optimum comfort and privacy.

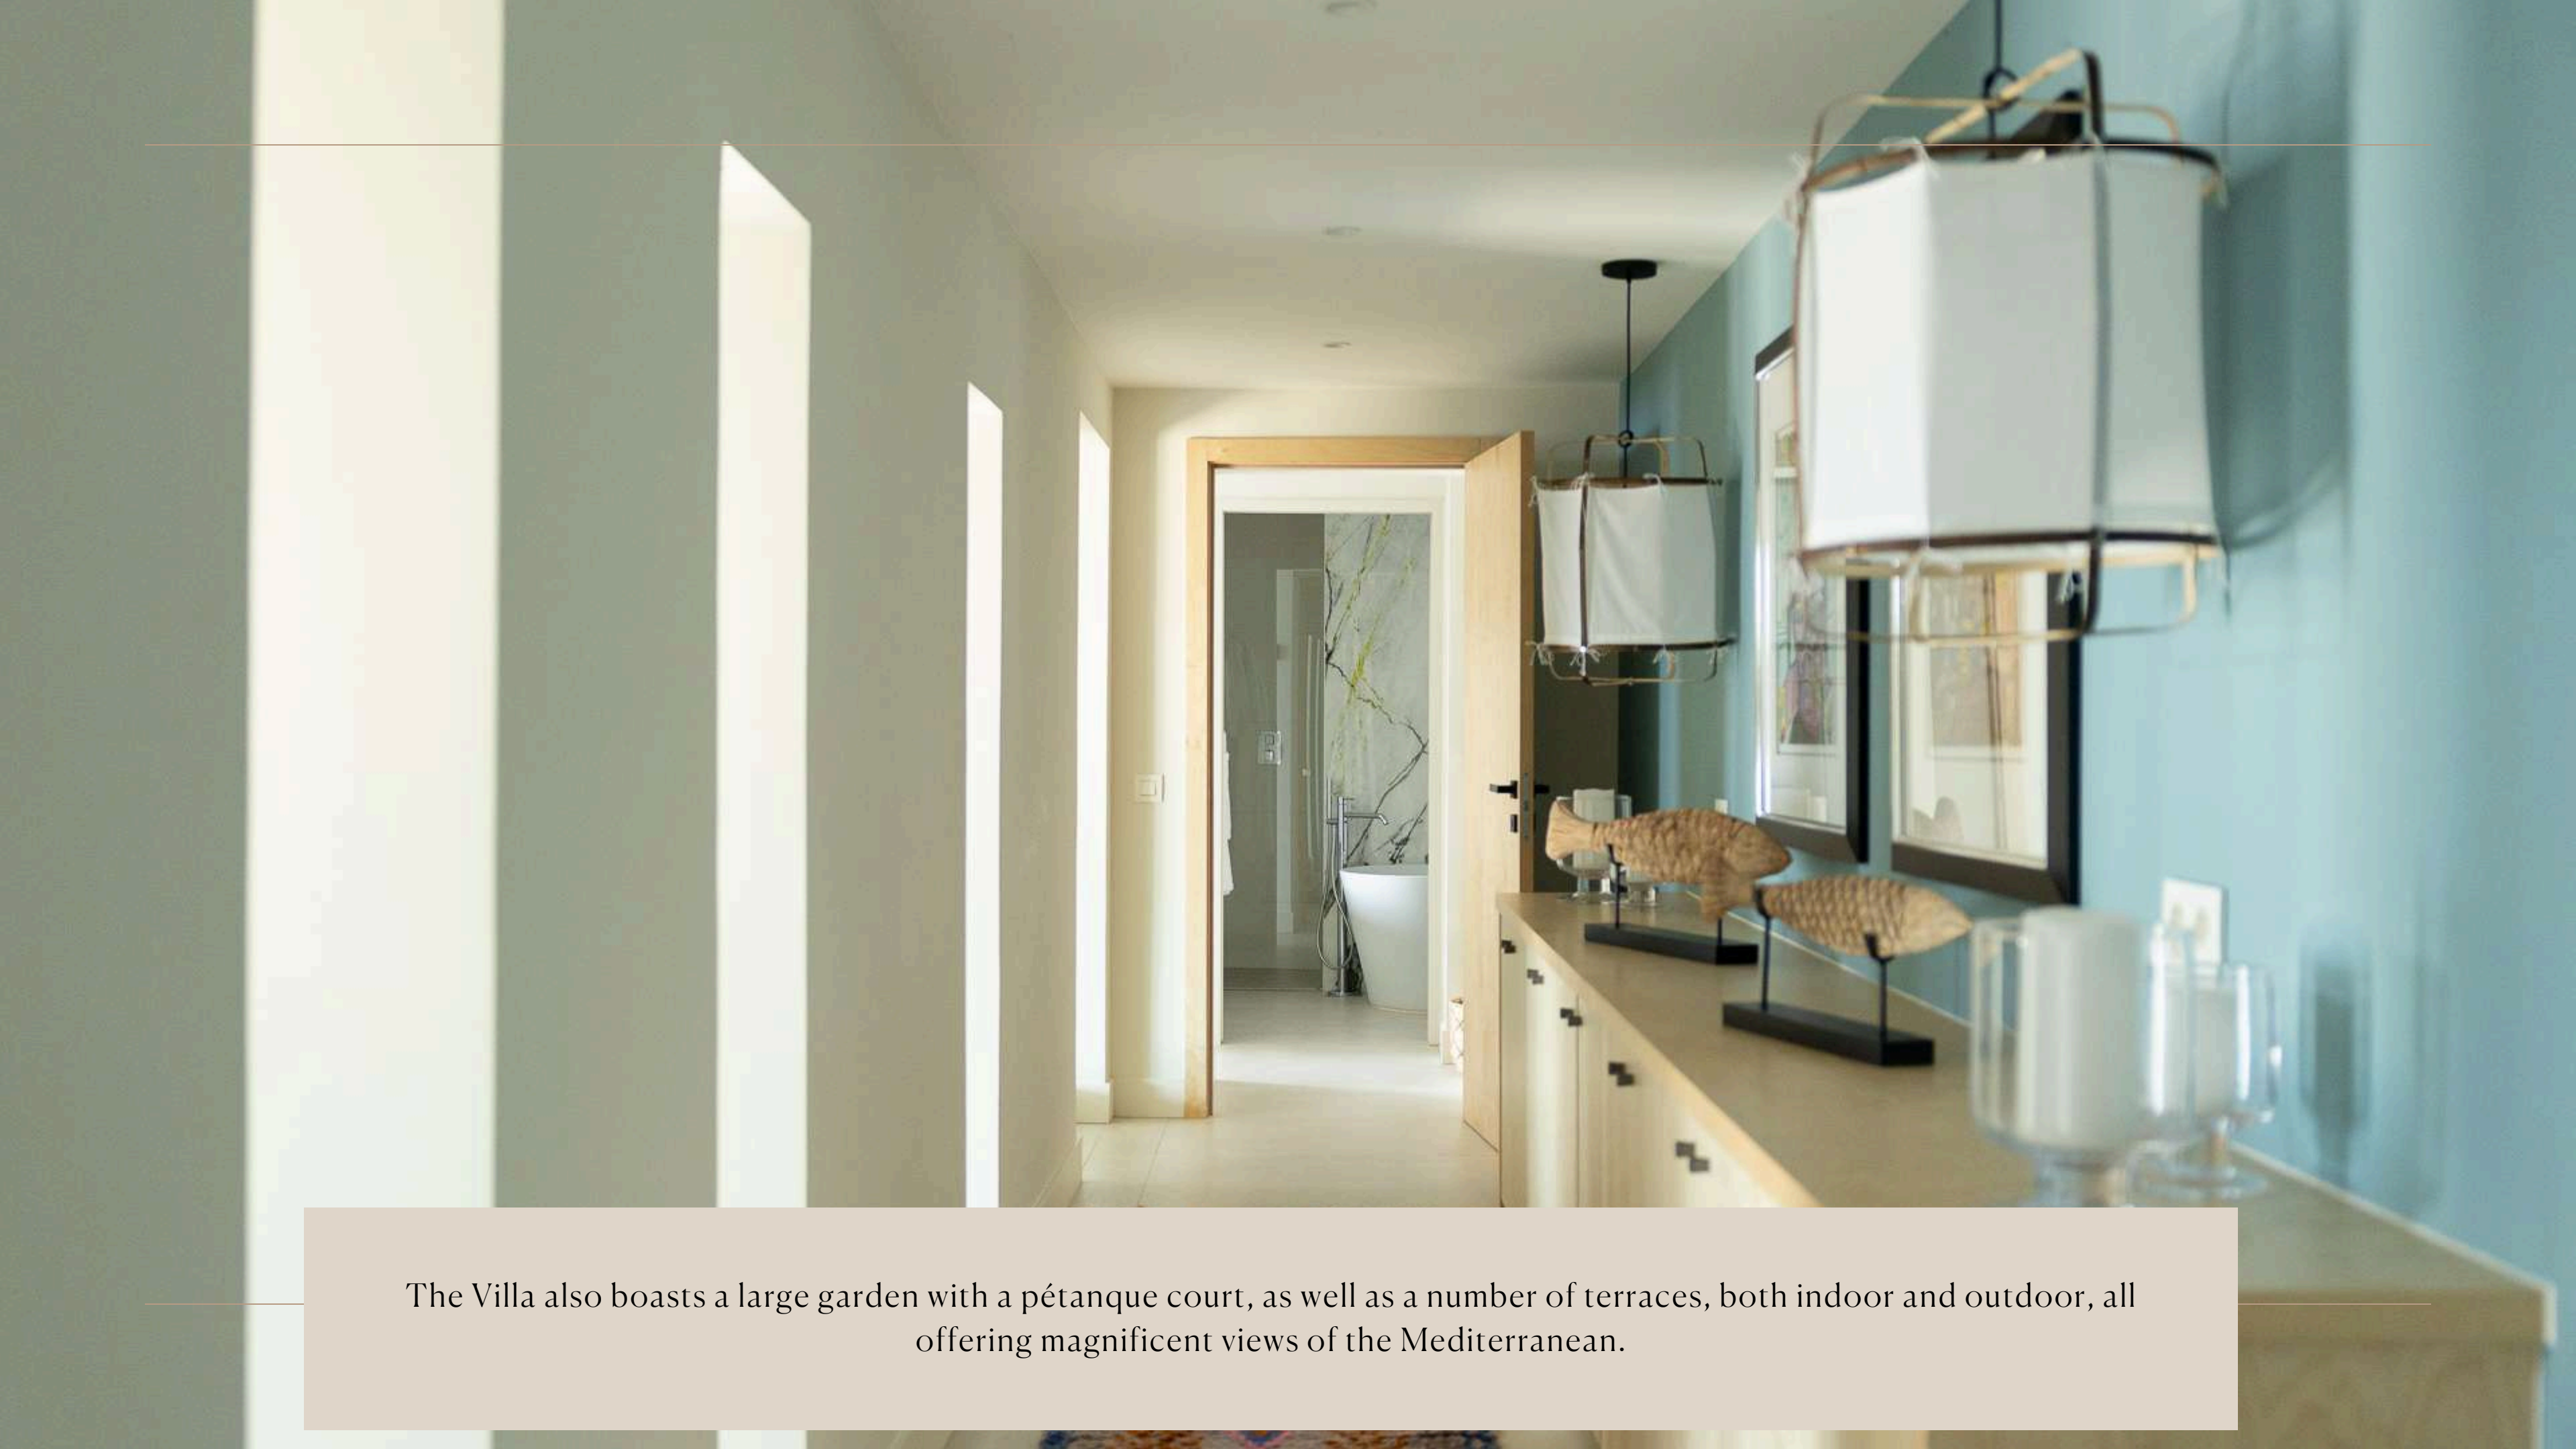

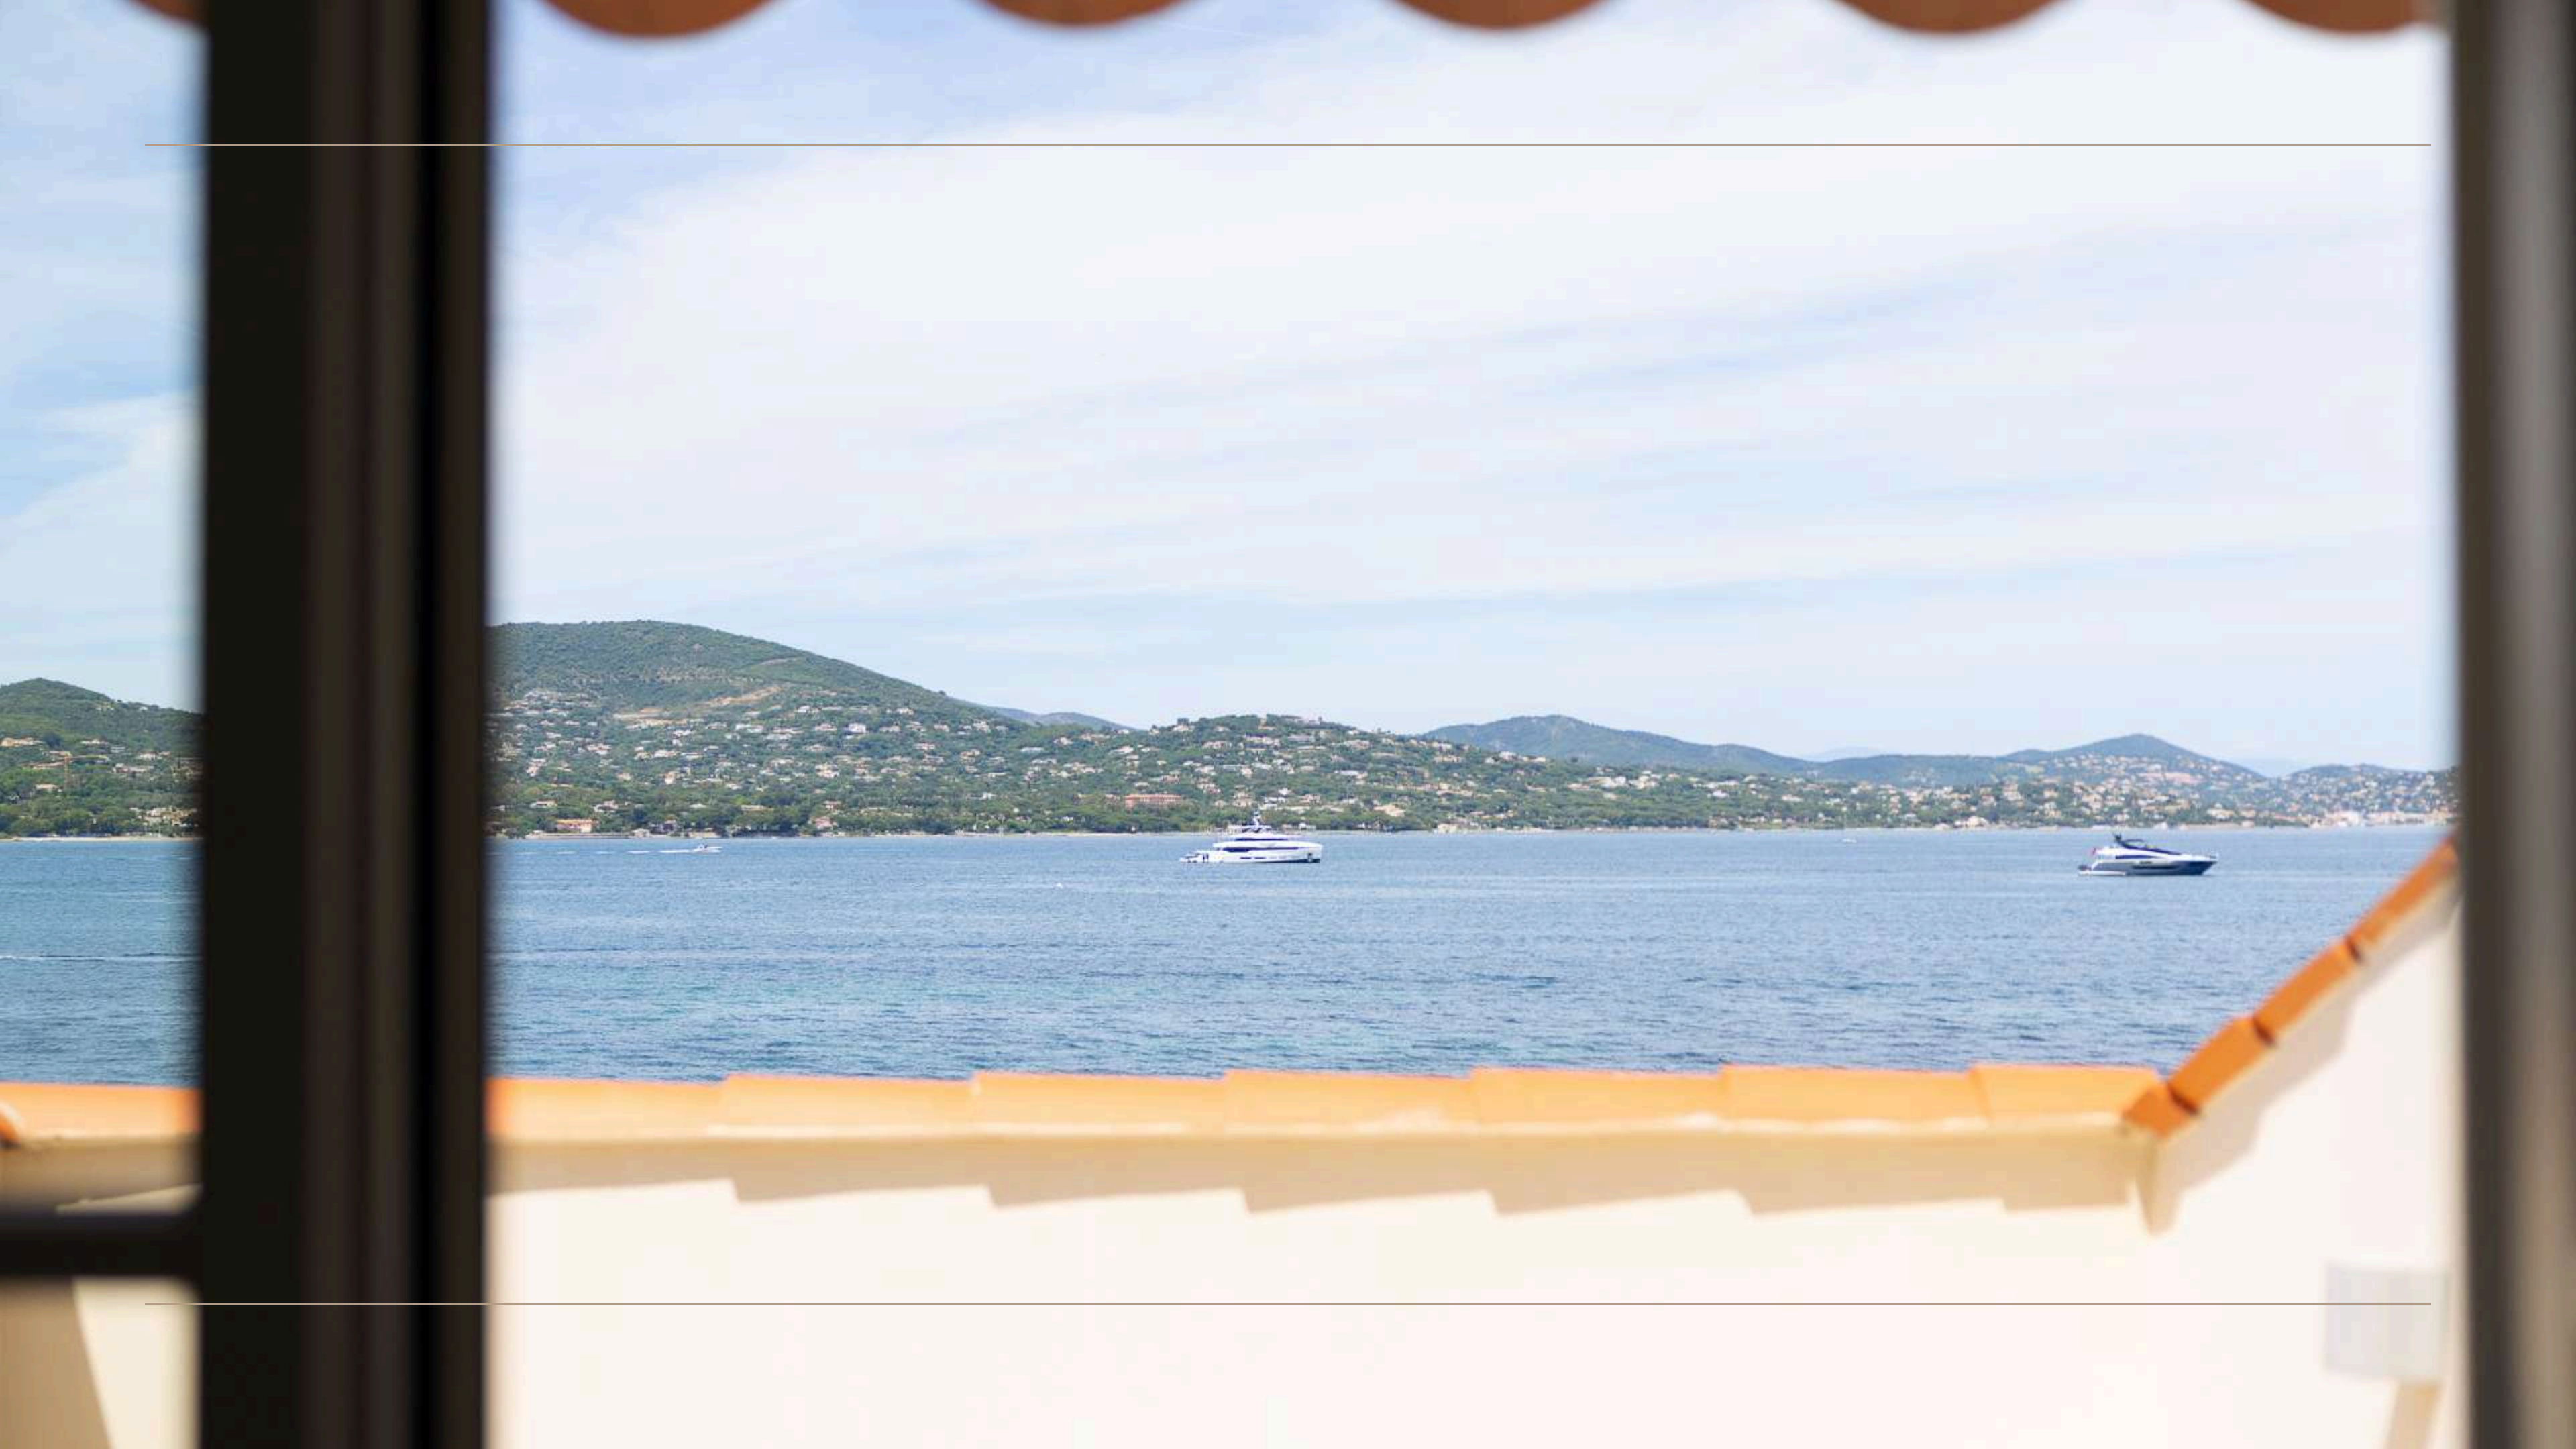

The Villa also boasts a large garden with a pétanque court, as well as a number of terraces, both indoor and outdoor, all offering magnificent views of the Mediterranean.

Ideally located at the entrance to the village of Saint-Tropez, this villa enjoys an exceptional location, directly on the sand with privileged access to the water. Just 5 minutes by car from the centre of the village, it is the perfect combination of seaside tranquillity and proximity to amenities.
