Ephesians 6: 18.

Prayer Requests from our Friends at Every Home for Christ

- For underground meetings to be discreet in a certain African region.
- For “spiritual covering” over gatherings there, that voices would be heard by God but would go unnoticed by the enemy.
- For the Lord to pour out the Holy Spirit in an Asian region and for there to be freedom to live and to worship there.
- For the Lord to open a door to enable the building of a training facility and studio for social media advocacy in an Asian capital city.

Revelation 3: 8.

Prayer & Praise Requests from our Friends at Biglife, for. . .

- People in the Davao region of the Philippines recovering from multiple earthquakes and a typhoon and for the Disciple Making Movement (DMM) teams seeking to serve and help them.
- 14 newly baptized Indian believers who recently became Christ followers.
- The heart soil of about 60 young people from an unreached area of Thailand where gospel seeds were planted and for the ongoing follow-up there.
- Our brother Kenny and the other disciples in France and for the door to be opened for a new work in northwestern France, in the Bretagne (Brittany) region.
- The team going to Uzbekistan in September to train disciples, that the training would lead to reaching and discipling more people in the believers’ home communities.

- The new group established in a Togolese mountain village through the work of Brother David, that the believers there will share Jesus with others.
- The faithful disciples working in a dangerous area of a West African country, giving thanks for the five new believers who were baptized in August.
- Our Brother Gopal's healing and recovery following his severe beating while sharing the gospel in a South Asian village, thanking the Lord for our brother's boldness and faithfulness and asking for repentance by all his attackers.

Luke 15: 1-10.

Matthew 10: 26-33.

“FROM ABANDONED TO ADOPTED IN CHRIST”

(From Our Ministry Partner: East-West)

“Jai was born into a Hindu family in South Asia. A rare birth defect stunted his growth, leaving him only about as tall as a toddler and affecting his mobility.

“This was too much for Jai’s parents. They abandoned him at a railway station to fend for himself. For many years, Jai survived by begging, eating scraps, and sleeping in cardboard boxes.

“This is unfortunately the reality for millions of children in South Asia. Many families abandon their children because of economic hardships or unstable home environments. Abandoned children face multiple risks on the streets, including abuse and exploitation.

“Life away from his family was incredibly difficult for Jai. He eventually turned to alcohol to numb the pain of his existence.

“Miraculously, Jai’s brother, Sameer, became a believer, despite living with a Hindu family. Sameer shared the gospel with his relatives, including Jai. But Jai wanted nothing to do with Jesus.

“He continued to drink until alcohol damaged his liver, leaving him deathly ill. While unconscious one night, Jai heard a clear voice saying, “I will not leave you as an orphan. I will come to you.” Jai snapped awake and immediately thought of what his brother had told him about the Lord. Broken and alone, Jai cried out to Jesus to save him.

“Instantly, Jai felt an overwhelming love consume him, and he decided to follow Jesus. From that moment on, Jai began sharing the gospel with everyone he knew and met.

“Today, Jai leads a house church, which has already helped plant six other churches among the forgotten and neglected in South Asia.

“The Spirit you received does not make you slaves, so that you live in fear again; rather, the Spirit you received brought about your adoption to sonship. And by him we cry, ‘Abba, Father.’”
