

U.S./Mexico Cross-Border Solutions

Mallory Alexander gives you cross-border expertise for freight moving between the U.S., Mexico, and global markets, including Asia destinations. No matter the complexity, we're here for you, providing U.S. and Mexican customs brokerage, transportation, warehousing & distribution, including bonded warehouse space, and any other support you need for your global logistics.

Let Us Solve Your Biggest Challenges

- ✓ Fragmented coordination and visibility
- ✓ Compliance complexity across borders
- ✓ Delays due to freight held for paperwork
- ✓ Interruptions causing expedite costs downstream

We're your one-stop partner for:

Cross-border transportation and visibility

Multimodal flexibility covering ocean, air, and ground

Documentation and compliance support

End-to-end accountability throughout the shipment lifecycle

End-to-End U.S. & Mexico Solutions

Our team is built to handle your shipments originating in Mexico. We manage shipments from origin through border crossing, port departure, and final delivery under one operating plan.

Preparation, Customs, & Departure

Managing documentation, carriers, border or port cutoffs, and inspections.

Documentation & Compliance

Supporting the processes for pedimento, IMMEX, and entry validation prior to departure.

Operational Status Visibility

Keeping you updated throughout the cross-border clearance process.

North American Linehaul & Distribution

Coordinating pool distribution, appointments, and distribution center or retail delivery.

Warehousing & Transloading

Meeting your needs, whether temperature control, conveyor handling, bonded warehousing, or other requirements.
