Biography

Todd has over 25 years’ experience in the public accounting and investment funds industries with a particular focus on fund services, specifically the regulatory framework of the Cayman Islands. Todd has an extensive background in fund services, with first-hand experience working with AML compliance, corporate services, fund accounting, risk management, shareholder services and global tax reporting.

Todd’s client service experience includes acting as an independent non-executive director, Anti-Money Laundering Compliance Officer and Money Laundering Reporting Officer to a wide range of investment vehicles regulated in the Cayman Islands, British Virgin Islands and Bahamas. Todd also sits on a number of investment advisory committees to US-domiciled investment funds. Fund strategies include traditional long/short equities and derivatives, funds of funds, real estate, credit and digital assets.

Prior to joining Calderwood, Todd worked as the Managing Director for Clearwater Governance Services where he actively serviced clients as an appointed director while also managing the business of a CIMA licensed Company Manager. Prior to that he worked at Ocorian, where he provided fiduciary and specialized directorship services to a wide range of investment vehicles. Before that, Todd worked at Maitland Administration Limited for nearly twelve years in a range of progressively more senior management roles. Todd began his career in accounting, spending four years at Deloitte.

Todd has worked with some of the largest and most sophisticated managers and advisors across Europe and the Americas, building a client service focused background and a track record of high profile experience.

Todd is a Member of the Cayman Islands Directors Association and a Registered Professional Director with the Cayman Islands Monetary Authority. He earned his status as a Certified Public Accountant in 2007, is an Accredited Director under the Chartered Governance Institute of Canada and earned his certification as an Anti-Money Laundering Specialist in 2019. He holds a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with a concentration in Accounting from Sonoma State University in California.
