Opening Prayer In the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, let us ask for forgiveness and cleansing. We seek your guidance and wisdom. Gloria/ Lullaby (Sunday and festive celebrations) We praise God for His majesty and for bringing peace to those who follow Him. We thank You, Lord God, King of heaven and earth, for the sacrifice of Your Son Jesus Christ, our Savior and Redeemer. Prayer May the powerful God forgive us our sins and guide us on the path to eternal life. Through Jesus Christ, we pray for the forgiveness of our sins and the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Biblical Readings (First Reading) From the Book of [insert book name], we read about the power of God's word and His promise to redeem us. Sermon We believe in the good news of Jesus Christ, who was born of a virgin, suffered on the cross, died, and rose again. Let us offer our prayers with faith and trust in God's goodness and mercy. Closing Prayer Lord, listen to our prayers. May we be guided by Your Spirit and live according to Your will. Amen. We pray for those who are suffering, the sick, and those in need. We also pray for our departed loved ones and all souls in Purgatory. Prayer for the Suffering Dear Lord, hear our prayer. We pray for those who are struggling and seeking solace in You. Have mercy on us and grant us peace. Prayer for the Departed We pray for our deceased loved ones and all souls in Purgatory. May they rest in eternal peace and may their souls be granted pardon. Personal Prayers We offer our personal prayers to God, asking for His guidance and protection. We seek forgiveness for our sins and ask that our sacrifices be accepted by Him. Eucharistic Prayer You are the source of all holiness, O Lord. Through Your Spirit, make these gifts sacred. May they become the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ, as we offer them to You in sacrifice. Closing Prayer We thank You, dear God, for all that you have given us. May our sacrifices be accepted by You and may we be worthy of Your forgiveness. Note: The text appears to be a combination of various Catholic prayers and liturgical texts, including the Eucharistic Prayer, and may not be a single, cohesive work. After dinner, he took hold of the censer and again praised God. He brought the censer to his servants and said: "Receive this chalice, which is the blood of my Father, without beginning or end, shed for you and for all who will be forgiven of their sins." Make it a memorial for me. Let us unravel the mystery of faith. Jesus will return at the end of time. We are now remembering his death and resurrection, and I am offering you the bread that gives life and the cup that offers salvation. Because we were chosen by you, I ask that we be united in the body and blood of Christ through the Holy Spirit. Spread the message of your church to the entire world. Join me in loving each other like brothers and sisters in the family of God. Remember Jesus, who was called to be the savior of his people. May he join them in their resurrection. May my siblings, who have died with hope that they will live again, also receive eternal life, just like all those who have passed away. Let us remain united in your enlightenment. Have mercy on us and pity us as we are united in your life without end. With Mother Mary, the Mother of God, with the apostles, and with all the saints, I pray that we may be one with you. May your honor and glory be revealed through your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. Through Jesus, all praise and honor belong to you, almighty God. The priest will break the bread and consecrate it by saying: "Our Father, you reign in heaven and on earth." The priest then prays: "Forgive us our sins, just as we forgive those who have sinned against us. Do not let us fall into temptation, but deliver us from evil." The priest breaks the bread and separates a piece to be consecrated while saying: "My Father, you are our king. Your peace is what I leave with you." May your peace always be upon you. May we receive peace and unity according to your will.
