Delegate and Hire Rates

Dating from 1768-1774 and designed by the renowned architect Robert Adam, No. 3 Robert Street is a stunning example of a Georgian property painstakingly restored and adapted to 21st Century expectations.

Perfectly situated between the River Thames and Covent Garden, with far-reaching views, the building is ideally situated for connections across London and beyond, with Charing Cross and Embankment stations just two minutes away.

From the cool marble entrance and reception hall, to the graceful First Floor Boardroom with magnificent Adam ceiling and private terrace, No. 3 Robert Street is an elegant, discreet but very central location for your business meetings.
