

ABOUT CORPORATE COUNCIL ON AFRICA

The Corporate Council on Africa (CCA) is the leading U.S. trade association dedicated exclusively to advancing business and investment between the United States and Africa. CCA helps companies navigate both markets—offering strategic guidance on regulations, government engagement, financing tools, and trade and investment opportunities.

Through curated trade missions, business delegations, and high-level convenings, CCA connects U.S. and African companies with investors, buyers, and decision-makers. CCA also partners with regional organizations across Africa to strengthen trade ecosystems.

CCA turns policy, capital, and opportunity into real commercial outcomes for its members.
