

Flamingoes on Laguna Chaxa in the spectacular Atacama Desert, Chile

Dental Study Tour to Chile

19 – 31 January 2026

Extension to Easter Island
31 January – 4 February 2026

MAIN TOUR:

Level 3
MODERATE

EXTENSION:

Level 4
ACTIVE

Magnificent Torres del Paine, Patagonia, with the famous 'Horns' visible

Chile is a land of extraordinary beauty and contrast, snaking down from the driest desert in the world to vast frozen glaciers in the south, passing volcanoes, lakes and lush vineyards.

This tour shows you the best of the country, from the chic capital of Santiago and bohemian Valparaíso; to the lovely adobe town of San Pedro in the driest desert in the world; down to beautiful Puerto Varas in Chile's magnificent Lake District, where vivid blue lakes reflect snow-capped volcanoes; to end in the glacial wonderland of Torres del Paine.

THE MAIN TOUR IS CLASSED AS:

Level 3 | Moderate

Regular walking at destinations, extended standing and /or increased travel distances. Good fitness is required.

Along the way, make specialist professional visits and hear CPD accredited lectures from local practitioners and tour leader Kevin Esplin, enjoy fine food influenced by both immigration and local tradition, and of course Chile's top-quality wines. Stay in lovely hotels that reflect their environment, with views from the desert to lakes and mountains.

There is an optional post-tour extension to Easter Island. This tour has broad appeal and partners are very welcome.

THE EXTENSION IS CLASSED AS:

Level 4 | Active

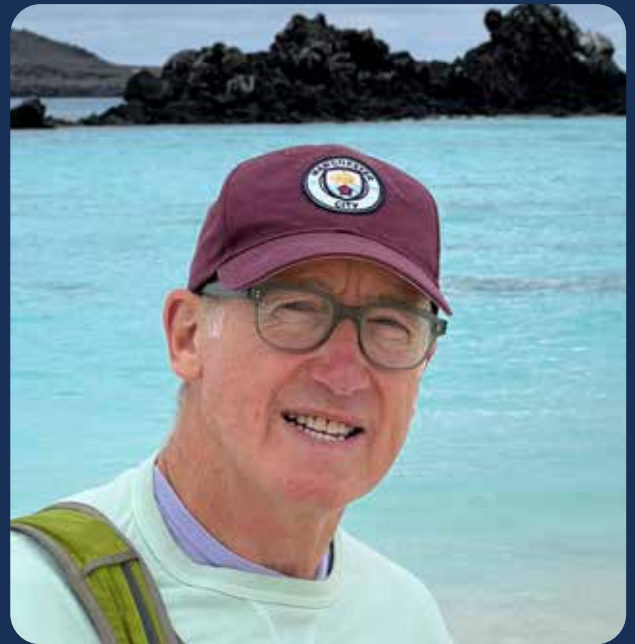

Longer and fuller days. Significant levels of walking, covering longer distances, requiring very good fitness and mobility.

Tour Leader

Kevin Esplin has been a specialist in prosthodontics for many years. He trained at King's College Hospital, London and then embarked on a two-year postgraduate program at the University of Connecticut, followed by a stint at the Eastman Dental Institute, London. For the past 35 years he has been in private practice in Cambridge, where he specialises in restorative dentistry and dental implants. His practice won the award of 'The Best Dental Practice in Britain' in 2015.

He has lectured in the USA and England and has been running dental education programs in his practice for the past 10 years. He is also an highly experienced and popular tour leader.

'Tour leader Kevin was very helpful – excellent. A tour leader par excellence!'

Bohemian Valparaíso

Extension:

31 Jan – 4 Feb 2026

Deep in the Pacific Ocean, well over a thousand miles from the nearest inhabited land, Easter Island - or Rapa Nui - is shrouded in myth and legend, made more intriguing by the colossal moai statues that are scattered across the island. Explore the most fascinating locations on the island, with time to relax.

Day 13: Santiago / Easter Island (Sat, 31 Jan)

B

- Am Fly to Easter Island and transfer to Hotel Taha Tai.
- Pm Learn of the history of Rapa Nui on a tour into the interior of the island to the Puna Pau quarry, where the heads of the most famous moai were carved. Continue the Ahu Akivi platform. Visit the Tahai ceremonial centre and see three restored platforms.

Day 14: Easter Island (Sun, 1 Feb)

B

- Am Take a leisurely hike to the highest point on Rapa Nui, the summit of Terevaka Volcano, for panoramic views. Descend the volcano to the Akivi sector. Return to hotel and at leisure.

Day 15: Easter Island (Mon, 2 Feb)

B

- Am Visit the VINAPU archaeological site, whose stone constructions reflect the techniques used by the indigenous people. Continue to the ceremonial village of Orongo. End at the Rano Kau Volcano viewpoint, which hides a natural sanctuary in its hidden crater.
- Pm At leisure.

Day 16: Easter Island (Tues, 3 Feb)

B (box lunch)

- Am This full day archaeological tour visits some of the most outstanding sites related to the island's mysterious moai, finishing with a visit to Anakena Beach, with the best-preserved moai on the entire island, as well as palm trees, white sand and turquoise water.

Day 17: Easter Island / Santiago (Wed, 4 Feb)

B

- Am At leisure.
- Pm Fly to Santiago and overnight at the Holiday Inn Santiago Airport.

NB: All itineraries are subject to change according to local conditions.
