Thailand Post WFOT Congress Tour 2026

13 – 20 February 2026

Inspiring Change, Innovating Futures

Level 3
MODERATE

Terraced rice fields, Chiang Mai

This tour offers a fascinating journey through Thailand's history and culture, showcasing how Thai traditions and local practices are integrated into occupational therapy.

Following the WFOT conference in Bangkok, journey to Chiang Mai, a city in the mountainous north known for its many beautiful and historic Buddhist wats. From here, venture into Doi Suthep-Pui National Park and an elephant sanctuary, where you can explore the jungle after dark and even join the elephants for a river bath. Continue to Phuket, a sun-kissed island famed for its colourful 19th-century shophouses and charming Sino-Portuguese architecture, offering a blend of culture, history, and seaside charm.

This professional tour explores the evolution of occupational therapy in Thailand within its unique social and economic contexts, highlighting how Western therapeutic practices are integrated with traditional Thai medicine. Designed to provide insights into Thai society, history, and healthcare, the tour also provides a superb cultural program and ample time to discover Thailand's breathtaking landscapes and contemporary culture.

THIS TOUR IS CLASSED AS:

Level 3 | Moderate

Regular walking at destinations, extended standing and /or increased travel distances. Good fitness is required.

Tour Leader

Marilyn Pattison is the founder and General Manager of MPOT/Access Fitness, a leading provider of adult community rehabilitation services in South Australia; the General Manager of Talking Matters, a leading provider of paediatric services in South Australia; and the immediate past president of the World Federation of Occupational Therapists (WFOT).

Marilyn has been involved in a wide variety of practice settings and has been involved with the state and national Australian Occupational Therapy associations and worldwide with WFOT, including liaising with the World Health Organisation. Marilyn is recognised as an international expert in workplace health, rehabilitation and entrepreneurship and is regularly invited as a guest speaker internationally.

Marilyn has been awarded the OT Australia National Award for her contribution to her professional association as well as the Sylvia Docker Lectureship for her contribution to the profession. Internationally, Marilyn has been made an Honorary Member of the Swedish Occupational Therapy Association and the Moroccan Association of Occupational Therapy, and an Honorary Fellow of WFOT, the highest international honour an occupational therapist can receive.

Ban Rim Pa, Phuket

4 nights Chiang Mai – 3 nights Phuket

Day 1: Bangkok/ Chiang Mai (Fri, 13 Feb) D

Am: Depart Bangkok following the WFOT Congress. You will be picked up from your hotel in Bangkok and transferred to Krung Thep Aphiwat Railway Station for your Special Express train to Chiang Mai.

Eve: Arrive in Chiang Mai and check in to the hotel before dinner at the hotel.

Day 2: Chiang Mai (Sat, 14 Feb) B D

Am: Explore Chiang Mai, a city known for its beautiful and historic Buddhist wats. Visit 600-year-old Wat Phrathat Doi Suthep Temple and enjoy unparalleled views across Chiang Mai. Continue to Wat Suan Dok, distinguished by its large central stupa, said to contain a Buddha relic that self-multiplied, finishing at Wat Chedi Luang.

Pm: Visit a community rehabilitation centre and see firsthand how community-based services support individuals with physical disabilities and older adults in rural areas. These programs are delivered through close collaboration between Chiang Mai University, the local administration and occupational therapists, physical therapists, and trained Village Health Volunteers (VHVs).

Eve: Experience a Khantoke dinner in traditional northern Thai style, with food served in large platters at low tables.

Day 3: Chiang Mai (Sun, 15 Feb) B

Am: Chiang Mai is Thailand's hub for exquisite, high-quality handicrafts, created by the local Lanna Thai people. Observe traditional production techniques in local workshops and browse a wide array of handmade treasures, from Saa paper umbrellas and lacquerware to silk and cotton textiles, gemstones, and finely crafted wooden furniture.

Pm: Discover how Thai traditions and local culture are integrated into occupational therapy practice. At the Industrial Rehabilitation Centre, occupational therapists work with individuals recovering from workplace injuries as usual, with the addition of using traditional crafts such as silver carving as part of rehabilitation. Several community-based rehabilitation centres provide tradition-based programs for older adults—such as stroke survivors—that promote physical health, cognitive function, emotional well-being, and social connection.

Eve: Travel to Doi Suthep–Pui National Park for the magical Chiang Mai Night Safari. The park features three distinct zones—

Savanna Safari, Predator Prowl, and Jaguar Trail—each offering its own unique encounters.

Day 4: Chiang Mai (Mon, 16 Feb) B D

Am: Enjoy a scenic drive north of Chiang Mai, through verdant forests and rural landscapes, en route to an Elephant Sanctuary. Feed and interact with the elephants in their natural environment, as you learn about their behaviour and history. Watch as they bathe in the river, wade in and join the muddy fun.

Pm: Visit the Occupational Therapy Department and clinic at Chiang Mai University to learn about occupational therapy in Thailand. Meet with staff and students and share a meal together.

Day 5: Chiang Mai / Phuket B D

Am: Transfer to Chiang Mai Airport for flight to Phuket.

Pm: Arrive in Phuket and transfer to your hotel for check in. At leisure.

Day 6: Phuket (Wed, 18 Feb) B L

Am: Take a guided tour of a local market to buy fresh ingredients, before returning to a cooking school led by expert chefs at the iconic Governor's Mansion for a step-by-step lesson in preparing a delicious four-course Thai meal. Enjoy your creations at the renowned Blue Elephant Restaurant.

Pm: Learn about the lessons learned from the tsunami, including a discussion with Marilyn Pattison.

Day 7: Phuket (Thurs, 19 Feb) B D

Am: Learn how Thai therapeutic massage is used and its benefits in physical and mental rehabilitation.

Pm: At leisure before a farewell dinner at Baan Rim Pha for Thai fusion cuisine with stunning views of Phuket Island.

Day 8: Phuket (Fri, 20 Feb) B

Am/Pm: Depart hotel after breakfast.

All itineraries are subject to change according to local conditions.
