History, Culture, and Cuisine in Mexico World Physiotherapy Congress Post Congress Tour 17 – 25 May 2027

Post Tour Extension to Bahías de Huatulco
25 – 29 May 2027

Level 3
MODERATE

The Pyramid of the Sun, Teotihuacan

Journey through ancient civilisations, colonial cities and vibrant communities to uncover the spirit and colour of Mexico on this vivid adventure in the company of your fellow professionals.

The tour visits three of Mexico's most important cultural centres, including the colonial grandeur of the capital, where one of the 20th centuries most influential artists, Frida Kahlo, found inspiration.

Trace the story of Mexico through the legacy of its great civilisations. Visit the vast and mysterious pyramid complex of Teotihuacan and the ancient Zapotec capital of Monte Albán. Wander the Talavera decorated streets of colonial Puebla and see the traditional crafts of the Zapotec people in Oaxaca, where you can try your hand at making tortillas.

This tour follows the World Physiotherapy Congress 2027, which takes place in Guadalajara from 14–16 May 2027. The tour itinerary includes a series of professional visits and talks, organised in partnership with the Mexican Physiotherapy Organization, with details to be confirmed closer to departure.

There is also the option to extend your stay for 4 nights in the unspoiled coastal destination of Bahías de Huatulco.

'I loved this post-congress tour!
Gillian was really wonderful – energetic, patient and full of fun!
The variety and mix of visits, clinics, touring, restaurants have been wonderful.'

Frida Kahlo Museum, the 'Blue House' (Casa Azul), Coyoacan

3 nights Mexico City – 2 nights Puebla – 3 nights Oaxaca de Juárez

Day 1: Mexico City (Mon, 17 May) D

Am: Make your way to Mexico City following the World Physio Congress and check in to Histórico Central.

Eve: Listen to a brief background on the tour followed by a welcome dinner in the historic centre of Mexico City.

Day 2: Mexico City (Tues, 18 May) B

Am: Take a guided city tour, passing the Presidential Palace and strolling through the enormous Zócalo before visiting the mighty Catedral Metropolitana, the oldest cathedral in the Americas. Continue to the Museum Antiguo Colegio de San Ildefonso. Sample local delicacies at Mercado 77 San Juan.

Pm: Professional visit and talk. At leisure.

Day 3: Mexico City (Wed, 19 May) B L

Am: Visit the Museo Nacional de Antropología, whose 12 exhibition halls are each dedicated to a different pre-Columbian civilization of Mexico. Continue to Coyoacán, a tranquil neighbourhood known for its cobblestone streets, colourful colonial architecture, markets, cafés, and restaurants. See Frida Kahlo's cobalt-blue home, which became a museum following her death in 1954.

Pm: Explore the Museo Casa Estudio Diego Rivera, where the artist couple Diego Rivera and Frida Kahlo once lived. Diego Rivera's studio displays a selection of his paintings, photographs, painting tools, and personal belongings.

Day 4: Mexico City / Puebla (Thurs, 20 May) B D

Am: Take a short walk to visit the two basilicas dedicated to the Virgin of Guadalupe. Drive to Teotihuacán to explore its vast pyramid complex. Built between 250 BC and 700 AD, it is regarded as the first city in the New World.

Pm: Continue to Puebla and check in to Hotel San Pedro before dinner in the city centre.

Day 5: Puebla (Fri, 21 May) B L

Am: Guided tour of Puebla, visiting the Cathedral and the Plaza de la Constitución, one of the most beautiful squares in Mexico. This colonial city can be identified by its distinctive blue and white Talavera tiles, which were originally used to decorate churches and altars. Visit a Talavera workshop to observe artisans at work. Enjoy a local lunch.

Pm: Professional physiotherapy visit and talk.

Day 6: Puebla / Oaxaca de Juárez (Sat, 22 May) B L D

Am: Travel to Zapotitlán Salinas, a region famous for its impressive cacti forest. Visit the Jardín Botánico, an unspoiled natural landscape that can be explored via a network of paths and stairways. It's surrounded by towering columnar cacti, palms, and elephant-foot trees.

Pm: Drive to Oaxaca de Juárez and check in to the hotel in the centre of Oaxaca.

Day 7: Oaxaca de Juárez (Sun, 23 May) B L

Am: Explore Monte Albán, the ancient capital of the Zapotec and later, the Mixtec civilisations, whose magnificent ruins date from 500–800 AD. Situated on a dramatic flattened mountaintop overlooking the Oaxaca valleys, the site incorporates sloping terraces, houses, temples and tombs. Return to Oaxaca to visit a local market to select ingredients for your tortilla-making class. Afterwards, enjoy the fruits of your labour.

Pm: Visit the Museo Cultural de Oaxaca, housed within a former 16th-century Dominican monastery and featuring masterpieces of Mixtec art and jewellery. Explore the cobbled streets and markets of Oaxaca, one of Mexico's most beautiful cities, and admire the magnificent Church of Santo Domingo de Guzmán.

Day 8: Oaxaca de Juárez (Mon, 24 May) B D

Am: Visit the peaceful village of Santa María del Tule and see one of the largest, oldest trees in the world. According to legend, the enormous Ahuehuete tree was planted by a priest of the Aztec god, Ehécatl, and is believed to be more than 2,000 years old. Continue to Teotitlán del Valle, a village renowned for its carpet weaving. Each family, mostly of Zapotec origin, has its own distinctive style and tradition.

Pm: At leisure until the farewell dinner.

Day 9: Oaxaca de Juárez (Tues, 25 May) B

Am: Depart the hotel after breakfast.
