A maiko in Kyoto

Japan is a blend of gracious tradition, exquisite ritual and hyper modernity. This itinerary follows Japan's long history from the earliest historical records and continues via the shoguns, the arrival of the black ships, the Meiji Restoration and the opening of Japan, to the modern day.

You will travel in exceptional company; this tour is led by Jason James OBE, Director General of the Daiwa Anglo-Japanese Foundation, whose wide-ranging knowledge of Japanese culture encompasses the economy, literature, art, history, and the relationship between the UK and Japan. You will also be accompanied by our highly experienced Japanese National Guide, Coco.

The tour includes a range of specialist visits and experiences in Osaka, Kyoto, Nara, Hakone, the Izu Peninsula and Tokyo, illustrated by short talks throughout. Enjoy local cuisine and travel aboard one of Japan's highly efficient bullet trains, as autumn's fiery shades transform the landscape.

THIS TOUR IS CLASSED AS:

Level 3 | Moderate

Regular walking at destinations, extended standing and /or increased travel distances. Good fitness is required.

Tour Leader

Jason James is Director General of the Daiwa Anglo-Japanese Foundation. Having been fascinated by Japan on a choir tour at the age of 13, he chose to read Japanese Studies at King's College, Cambridge, where he was a double scholar (academic and choral), graduating with a "starred first" (only the third time this accolade had ever been awarded by Cambridge's Japanese Department) in 1987. Subsequently he worked in the financial industry, mostly specialising in Japanese equities, becoming Head of Research in the Tokyo office of HSBC Securities, and eventually Head of Global Equity Strategy at HSBC in London. From 2007-2011 Jason was Director of the British Council in Japan, during which time he also served as Chair of the European Union National Institutes of Culture Japan cluster, a Board Member of the Japan-British Society, and a Board Member of United World Colleges Japan. In London, in addition to his day job he was a Trustee of the Japan Society for six years, and a member of the Japan Season of Culture Action Committee.

Jason is currently a member of the UK-Japan 21st Century Group and a Governor of King's College School, Cambridge.

Jason's interest in Japan is broad, with publications ranging from 'The Political Economy of Japanese Financial Markets' (co-author, Macmillan, 1999), to 'Edmund Blunden and Japan' (Asiatic Society, 2010).

Jason received an OBE for services to UK/Japan relations in The King's Birthday Honours 2023. He is a popular and experienced tour leader; he has led a number of successful tours to Japan.

Bullet Train Past Mount Fuji

Travel in and to Japan

The main tour transport will be by private bus, with one bullet train journey. As there is limited space for luggage on the bullet train, large bags will be sent separately ahead of the group by overnight transfers. Participants will use hand luggage for those nights. This cost is included in the tour.

This tour includes regular walking on a daily basis and so a good level of fitness is important for all participants.

Flights to and from Japan are not included with this package. We can help organise these flights.

All hotels are modern 4- or 5-star accommodation. Please note that Japanese hotel rooms can be smaller than in other destinations.

Alongside the main itinerary, there will be optional visits, including a traditional onsen and a walk along the Philosopher's Path in Kyoto. We also allow time at leisure throughout, giving participants the chance to relax or pursue their own interests within each destination. Our national guide, Coco, will be on hand to offer recommendations for meals that are not included in the tour.

You will be accompanied throughout the tour by our Japanese National Guide, Coco. Coco is highly experienced, organised and caring and speaks excellent English.

"Coco was inexhaustible, thorough, humorous and playful!"
