THE DOC'S ACADEMY

"Where poor shot making comes to the grave"

Terry, best known as Canada's Golf Doctor, has published hundreds of golf instructional articles and three successful golf instructional DVDs. Terry has been a requested guest speaker on The Golf Channel Academy Live, with Peter Kessler's "Making the Turn" on Sirius Radio, and a long-time guest with John Oakley on Talk 640 Radio in Toronto. Terry also joined the late Ken Venturi and Billy Casper, along with long drive champion Jason Zubeck as a demand speaker at Golf Consumer Shows throughout the USA.

Terry graduated in 1973 from Bowling Green State University of Ohio, where he was honored to receive a hockey, track, and field scholarship. He graduated with a BSc in Physical Education and was honored as an NCAA student athlete.

While playing the Canadian Tour (1975-81), Terry helped establish The Canadian Tournament Players Division, now known as The PGA Americas Tour.

But Coaching was his forte. By applying his successful competitive background, his many years of coaching, and his kinesiological education, Terry has guided his student to discover the most elusive aspect of golf:
