

Teacher

About Shefa:

The Shefa School is a Jewish community day school in Manhattan serving students in grades K-8 who benefit from a specialized educational environment in order to develop their strengths while addressing their learning challenges. We specifically serve students with language-based learning disabilities who have not yet reached their potential levels of success in traditional classroom settings. Shefa is a pluralistic community school, serving families across the range of Jewish involvement and observance. At Shefa, we believe that differences are a source of strength and that we are all enriched by a diversity of perspectives.

About the Position:

The Shefa School is seeking a full-time Teacher to join the Lower School. This is a 10-month faculty position.

Key Responsibilities:

- Small group teaching- 2 math groups, 1 reading group
- Academic support- pulling students for extra reading or math support as needed, running select WIN groups, working with students who are pulled from Hebrew classes
- Lunch Duty- captain all or most days
- Coverage for academic classes (especially extended coverages)
- Possible maternity leave coverage as a homeroom teacher, if need arises

Qualifications:

The ideal candidate will have a depth of training and expertise in his/her subject areas and as well as experience using multisensory instruction and experience in working with students with language-based learning disabilities. Candidates should demonstrate flexibility and comfort with risk-taking and ambiguity. We seek teachers who thrive in highly collaborative environments, who are reflective and committed to growth, who have strong communication skills, and who demonstrate a strong commitment to diversity, equity and inclusion. Applicants must have at least 3 years of teaching experience and should have or be eligible for Special Education certification and/or a relevant Master's Degree.

We believe in investing in our employees' development and aim to provide a supportive work environment characterized by thoughtful and generous feedback and opportunities for growth and advancement.

The Shefa School is committed to the values of diversity, equity, and inclusion and ensuring a warm, welcoming, and nurturing environment for all. We are an equal opportunity employer and do not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, color, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, age, marital status, veteran status, or disability status. We especially encourage candidates from historically underrepresented communities to apply.

Salary Range: $60,000 - $90,000 commensurate with experience

(Please note this path is eligible for mentorship but will not count towards senior teacher eligibility.)
