ROTH WINS WILD ONE AT MACON

Macon, Illinois (June 1, 2019).....Tyler Roth (Springfield, Ill.) captured a wild USAC Speed2 IMRA Midget feature Saturday night in the debut appearance by the series at Macon Speedway.

The series' first visit to a "bullring" in a while resulted in a cage match of sorts between the 23 feature starters. USAC NOS Energy Drink National Midget veteran Karter Sarff (Mason City, Ill.) took the early lead, controlling the first three circuits before yielding to Adam Taylor (Dwight, Ill.).

Taylor held the lead for just two laps before hitting the cushion and flipping on the sixth lap. That sent Roth to the lead for the ensuing restart. Brayden Gaylord (Madison, Iowa) also found misfortune after flipping in the main event that was shortened from 20 to 15 laps.

Roth controlled the remainder of the way to take his first IMRA win of the season over Jake Sollenberger (Canton, Ill.), Daltyn England (Riverton, Ill.) and James Picardi (Peoria, Ill.) while Tyler Kalb (Columbus, Ohio) rounded out the top-five.

BAUGH BACK TO WINNING WAYS AT SPOON RIVER

Canton, Illinois (July 6, 2019).....Andy Baugh returned to his winning ways in Saturday night's USAC Engler IMRA Speed2 Midget event at Spoon River Speedway.

Baugh, the defending series champ out of Mason City, Ill., earned his fourth IMRA win at Spoon River in 2019 after moving to the lead past fellow Mason City-ite Karter Sarff with six laps remaining. From there, Baugh drove away to the victory over Shane Morgan, Jake Sollenberger, Brent Burrows and Kevin Battefeld.

Meanwhile, Sarff, who led the first 14 circuits, finished 15th.

Baugh's victory ended a two-race streak in which he was not victorious at Spoon River following wins in the first three of the events this year. Korey Weyant won at the end of June and Patrick Bruns took the victory to begin July. Bruns finished 19th on Saturday.

STANFILL STANDS TALL AT SPOON RIVER

Canton, Illinois (August 24, 2019).....Bryan Stanfill led the final seven laps in a back-and-forth battle with Tyler Roth to win his first career USAC Engler IMRA Speed2 Midget feature event Saturday at Spoon River Speedway in Canton, Ill.

Stanfill, originally from Brea, Calif. but now residing in Brownsburg, Ind., led the opening two laps before Roth took control until lap six. Stanfill stood up in the seat and back by Roth to lead the field for laps seven through nine. Roth didn't go away quietly, though, striking back to assume the point on the tenth lap before Stanfill took a stranglehold of the top spot on lap 14.

For Stanfill, a two-time USAC Western States Midget feature winner, it was his first USAC-sanctioned win in nearly two decades. Stanfill's two career Western States wins came in 1998 in Ventura, Calif. and in 2000 in Santa Maria, Calif.

Stanfill was followed to the line by Roth, point leader Andy Baugh, Kevin Battefeld and Jake Sollenberger.

BAUGH WINS #6 AT SPOON RIVER

Canton, Illinois (September 2, 2019).....Andy Baugh captured his sixth USAC Engler IMRA Speed2 Midget victory of the season Monday night at Spoon River Speedway in Canton, Ill.

Baugh (Mason City, Ill.) trailed Aug. 24 Spoon River winner Bryan Stanfill for the first 13 laps of the 20-lap feature until a yellow flag slowed the race for the checkered. Baugh took advantage of the restart to get by Stanfill and pulled away to lead the final seven laps.

Karter Sarff charged from the sixth starting spot to run 2nd ahead of Bret Tripplett, Stanfill and Kevin Battefeld rounding out the top-five.

SPARKS IGNITES TO FIRST IMRA WIN AT PEORIA

Peoria, Illinois (October 19, 2019).....Jeff Sparks collected his first career USAC Engler IMRA Speed2 Midget victory Saturday night at Peoria Speedway in Peoria, Ill.

Sparks (Lincoln, Ill.) started from the pole and led all 20 laps of the main, but not without a challenge as Bryan Stanfill (Brea, Calif.) pressured Sparks for much of the first half of the feature. Following a lap 12 caution, Will Armitage, Tyler Roth and point leader Andy Baugh entered the fray along with Stanfill as Sparks held strong up front.

A red flag for Russell Johnston on the final lap created a one-lap dash to the finish. Sparks held off the pursuit of both Baugh and Armitage entering the first turn on the ensuing restart. Sparks then raced away to the victory over Baugh, Armitage, Tyler Roth and Brent Burrows.
