HISTORIC SPEEDROME WIN FOR BEV ON ESPN

Indianapolis, Indiana (July 24, 1986).....Bev Griffis of Zionsville, Ind. became the first female driver in USAC history to win a feature racing event on July 24 when she captured the 50-lap Jolly Rancher Candies/USAC Regional Midget Series race at the Indianapolis Speedrome.

The race was seen by a live national television audience as it was the first of five ESPN telecasts slated from the 1/5-mile paved oval this summer. In fact, it was the first ever event held under the Thursday Night Thunder banner on ESPN.

Griffis led all 50 laps in her father's Babe's Showgirls VW to beat Mack McClellan and Johnny Parsons to the checkered flag. The win was also the first in a main event for her father, Bob Wilkins, himself a veteran USAC Midget campaigner.

Series champion Rich Vogler crashed during the feature. Rich continues to lead the series standings in search of a third consecutive series championship.
