PANCHO 1ST HULMAN CLASSIC 2-TIMER

Pancho Carter became the first repeat winner in Hulman Classic history, taking the lead when Bubby Jones crashed. He drove the McCord Auto Supply/Dobbins Chevy owned by Steve Stapp.

Jones was leading the ninth annual "Tony Hulman Classic" May 5 at the Action Track in Terre Haute, Ind, when the front axle broke sending him into a roll and over the first turn guardrail.

Sheldon Kinser, fast qualifier both days at Terre Haute, finished Saturday's race in second place and tied for the point lead with Billy Cassella. Larry Rice took third-place in the Classic.

Bob East earned "Rookie of the Race" honors for placing fifth in the "Hulman Classic."
