MCCLUSKEY DEFEATS TERRE HAUTE SPRINT

Taking the lead from Greg Weld on the 6th lap, sprint car point leader Roger McCluskey stayed in front to win the 50-lap USAC Sprint Car race at the Terre Haute (Ind.) Action Track.

Dave Lundy survived a sensational flip, suffering only a minor neck injury. His car became airborne on the 31st lap, flipped sideways twice and end-over-end twice before coming to rest outside the track.

Don Branson set fast time but went out of the main event when he hit the inside guard rail. Branson also won a heat along with A.J. Foyt and Bobby Unser, and the semi was taken by Al Smith.

Finishing behind McCluskey in the main were Larry Dickson, Foyt, Carl Williams, Dick Atkins and Smith.
