

1991 USAC NATIONAL SPRINT CAR REVIEW

Robbie Stanley of Brownsburg, Indiana surprised the USAC Loctite National Sprint Car competition in 1991, winning the championship after a season-long duel with 1989-1990 runner-up Eric Gordon and four-time series champion Steve Butler.

Stanley broke from the gate with gusto, winning the series opening Pepsi-Cola Rich Vogler Classic at Winchester Speedway, then repeating at Winchester a month later in a nationally-televised ESPN feature in his Smokey's Stove & Spa Shop Special.

Robbie maintained the lead until August but was involved in a crash during a 30-lapper at Salem on August 11 and Gordon's third place there boosted him into the series lead. Gordon won the 21st Tony Hulman Classic at Indianapolis Raceway Park on August 17 and stayed in front until the 4-Crown Nationals at Eldora Speedway on September 22. Then, it was his turn to be involved in a crash and Stanley was able to regain the point lead with a sixth place finish.

Stanley's third place finish in the series' Lanier Raceway debut in Braselton, Georgian on October 12, coupled with Gordon's 10th place, left Stanley with a decent lead going into the series finale at Winchester on November 2-3. Bitter cold, which created icy, snowy track conditions on November 3, forced cancellation of the last race and left Stanley holding his first title.

Steve Butler's bid for a record fifth series championship fell short, although he was mathematically in the battle until the final race and turned in some impressive performances during the year, scoring traditional wins in the Carquest Sprint Classic at IRP and the Joe James-Pat O'Connor Memorial at Salem.

Other series highlights included Jack Hewitt's victories in the Jim Hurtubise Classic at Terre Haute and the $10,000-to-win 4-Crown Nationals at Eldora. Danny Smith collected back-to-back Clark Oil victories at Tri-City Speedway in Granite City, Illinois.

Other winners include Jim Keeker's Winchester Oldtimers and Lanier triumphs, Gene Lee Gibson's win in the Skoal Bandit Racing Indyana Sprint Classic at IRP, Kelly Kinser's winged triumphs at Kokomo and K-C Raceway. Eric Gordon's tacked on pavement wins at Berlin Raceway and Winchester Speedway in addition to his IRP victory mentioned earlier.

First-time USAC victors in 1991 were Brett Mann at I-96 Speedway and Jim Mahoney at Lakeside Speedway. In addition, Doug Wolfgang won a regional event at Tri-City Speedway in June and Randy Tiner won USAC's first-ever 360 Sprint Car main event at Bakersfield Speedway in October.

Series veteran Greg Staab, who suffered a serious concussion at Lakeside in September, was forced out for the balance of the season but returned as a spectator.
