

1992 USAC NATIONAL SPRINT CAR REVIEW

Robbie Stanley of Brownsburg, Indiana became the fourth driver in USAC history to repeat as National Sprint Car champion, winning the 1992 title after a classic three-way battle with Steve Butler and Eric Gordon.

Stanley's only feature victory in his National Parts Peddler Newspaper/Imperial Electro Coating/Smokey's/J & J Racing Special came at Lakeside Speedway in Kansas City, Kansas but that win boosted him into title contention. Ironically, the 1992 season ended the same way as the 1991 campaign as the final race was canceled due to weather, leaving Robbie holding a 45-point lead over Butler.

Opening the season with a second place finish at Lanier Raceway in Georgia, Robbie just missed giving car owner Steve Stapp a USAC record 50th career victory. Four races and a frightening upside down trip all the way down the Indianapolis Raceway Park backstretch later, he debuted his own brand-new J & J chassis and ended up in victory lane. That started a streak of 10 straight top five finishes which helped propel him to the 1992 crown. He took the point lead in late June and held off the challenges of four time champion Butler and three time runner-up Gordon, who ended up third in the final standings.

Butler and Gordon were not without their moments of glory, however. Both scored victories in the nationally-televised ESPN Saturday Night Thunder series and Eric added a third consecutive win at Berlin Raceway in Marne, Michigan, beating Stanley on the final lap.

Jim Keeker, winner of the series opener in Georgia, appeared to be the driver to beat in the early season. He added victories in his V6 powered machine at Indianapolis Raceway Park and in Salem Speedway's 100th USAC feature but suffered a broken wrist in a grinding crash at Lawrenceburg in early August. Although he returned to competition at season's end, the idle time ended his bid for the title.

Highlights of the season included Tony Stewart's first USAC win at Lebanon, Missouri's I-44 Speedway, passing Stanley on the white flag lap, plus Rusty McClure's surprise first USAC triumph in the Jim Hurtubise Classic at Terre Haute. Kevin Thomas and Cary Faas also joined the USAC feature winner's list for the first time. Thomas won the Lawrenceburg race and Faas was stunning in his Tony Hulman Classic victory at Terre Haute.

Traditional races also included the Don Branson-Jud Larson Memorial at Eldora, won by Terry Shepherd. Jim Mahoney earned two traditional pavement wins, grabbing the Rich Vogler Classic at Winchester and the Joe James-Pat O'Connor Memorial at Salem. Tony Elliott won a thriller with Dave Darland at Kokomo. Jack Hewitt broke a long dry spell with a spectacular drive at K-C Raceway and Danny Smith took the $10,000-to-win 4-Crown Nationals at Eldora.

Tony Stewart turned in a remarkable performance at Salem Speedway in August, flipping over the first turn wall into the trees, then returning to finish ninth in the feature in a borrowed car.
