

1993 USAC NATIONAL SPRINT CAR REVIEW

Robbie Stanley of Brownsburg, Indiana became only the second driver in USAC history to win three consecutive Sprint Car championships, driving the Dynamics, Inc./Hoffman Auto Racing Special to the 1993 USAC Loctite National Sprint Car title.

Stanley scored back-to-back victories in the Don Branson-Jud Larson and Pepsi-Cola Rich Vogler Classic races at Rossburg, Ohio's Eldora Speedway and Indiana's Winchester Speedway, respectively, to begin the season, but lost the point lead to four-time titlist Steve Butler in May. Stanley regained the lead in July, then held off Tray House and Eric Gordon in the final standings after Butler sat out a one-month midseason suspension.

Butler was involved in a controversial crash with Bill Rose while battling for the lead in the July 11 Jim Hurtubise Classic at Indiana's Terre Haute Action Track. Rose flipped over the guardrail after leading the race, which was eventually won by Stanley. Steve returned from the suspension to finish sixth in the final points.

Stanley's wins also included the 21st Pizza Hut Oldtimers Weekend at Winchester, one of three Winchester wins he notched in four starts. The Winchester finale was canceled for the third consecutive year due to cold weather and icy track conditions.

Season highlights included Dave Darland's first career USAC victory in the 23rd Tony Hulman Classic at Terre Haute in May. Jim Keeker made a successful return to the series after recovering from a 1992 arm injury by winning May's Winchester race and the Joe James-Pat O'Connor Memorial at Salem).

Tony Elliott's season was highlighted by a last turn victory over Keeker at Michigan's Berlin Raceway and subsequent $10,000 4-Crown Nationals win at Eldora. Jack Hewitt put together a late season streak of wins in three straight starts. Mike Bliss had record-setting victory in the Sunoco Race Fuels Summer Sprint Classic at Indianapolis Raceway Park in July. The IRP win made Bliss the first driver in USAC history to win a Midget, Sprint, and Silver Crown race at the same track in a single year.

Jim Mahoney earned a victory at IRP in May when Keeker's car was disqualified due to an infraction of the minimum weight rule and Tony Stewart earned wins at Salem and IRP.

Kenny Irwin Jr. earned the True Value Hardware Sprint Car Rookie of the Year Award in 1993.

Two drivers, Steve McCann and Jack Hewitt, suffered serious injuries in sprint car crashes during the season. McCann, who flipped during warmups at K-C Raceway, and Hewitt, who was struck by the flipping car of Mike Mann at Eldora in October, were successfully recuperating at season's end. Hewitt was leading the 4-Crown Nationals feature with four laps remaining when he was involved in a race-stopping accident. The win would have been his fifth in six starts.

The series also produced more than a dozen winners in semi-feature races, again sponsored by True Value Master Mechanic Tools.
