

1995 USAC NATIONAL SPRINT CAR REVIEW

Tony Stewart scored seven feature wins in the 1995 USAC Loctite National Sprint Car season, but the five he won in the last half of the season helped him capture the series title.

Challenged by defending series champion Doug Kalitta and perennial point leader Eric Gordon, Stewart shook both in early September and locked up the crown with his victory in the 4-Crown Nationals at Rossburg, Ohio's Eldora Speedway.

At one point, all three were tied for the point lead. Gordon broke that tie with his July 15 Oldtimers Weekend triumph, but mechanical problems thereafter hindered his title run.

Kalitta's lack of a feature victory until the series finale at Indiana's Winchester Speedway in October obviously hurt his chances for a repeat, but he salvaged the runner-up spot with numerous top 10 finishes.

Included among Stewart's wins in the Boles Chevrolet/TCI of Central Indiana machine were two at Indianapolis Raceway Park, extending car owner Glen Niebel's streak there to six consecutive races, plus pivotal wins at Hinsdale, Illinois' Santa Fe Speedway and Granite City, Illinois' Tri-City Speedway.

The Santa Fe victory in late July put him atop the standings to stay, and the Granite City win, coupled with Kalitta's 20th place finish in the 20 car field, virtually put Kalitta out of the picture. Other Stewart wins included the Joe James-Pat O'Connor Memorial at Indiana's Salem Speedway and another at Odessa, Missouri's I-70 Speedway.

The first four races of the year produced four different point leaders, with Gordon finally taking over for nearly two months. Kenny Irwin Jr. won two of the early races and four total on the pavement but inconsistent performances on the dirt left him 10th in the final points. On the pavement, though, Irwin was awesome, setting track records everywhere.

Jack Hewitt landed six wins on dirt, including the Tony Hulman Classic at Indiana's Terre Haute Action Track, the Robbie Stanley Classic at Indiana's Lawrenceburg Speedway, and the Jim Hurtubise Classic at Terre Haute.

Other winners included Chet Fillip and Brian Tyler in ESPN nationally-televvised races, plus Kevin Doty, Tray House, Tony Elliott, Byron Reed, and Mark Cassella.
