

1999 USAC NATIONAL SPRINT CAR REVIEW

Dave Darland finally ascended to the top of the USAC Stoops Freightliner National Sprint Car Series in 1999, leading the point standings nearly all season long while racking up four feature victories among 18 top four finishes in the Hoffman Auto Racing/Dynamics, Inc. Kroger/Pringles/Sunny Delight Special.

Darland didn't win a race until his Pennzoil Indiana Sprint Week victory at Lincoln Park Speedway in July but added the Joe James-Pat O'Connor Memorial at Indiana's Salem Speedway on pavement and dirt wins at Pennsylvania's Tri-City Speedway and in the 4-Crown Nationals at Ohio's Eldora Speedway. His Lincoln Park win came on the last lap as leaders J.J. Yeley and Cory Kruseman tangled.

Chasing Darland most of the year was Tracy Hines, who finished second in the standings after winning the Jan Opperman Classic at Indiana's Terre Haute Action Track and a race at Salem, the first driver to score back-to-back dirt/pavement wins since Tony Stewart in 1995. He also won the geographically unusual Pennzoil Indiana Sprint Week finale at Ohio's Eldora Speedway, as well as the Sammy Sessions Classic at Indiana's Winchester Speedway, plus two other features.

Defending series champion Tony Elliott captured the Pennzoil Indiana Sprint Week title despite the lack of a feature win but later took the Vince Osman Classic at Indiana's Kokomo Speedway, the Sheldon Kinser Memorial at Indiana's Bloomington Speedway, and the Danny Milburn Classic at Indiana's Lawrenceburg Speedway. He wound up third in the final points.

Other traditional races went to Derek Davidson in the Don Branson-Jud Larson Classic at Eldora, Dave Steele in the Rich Vogler Classic at Winchester, Kevin Briscoe in the Robbie Stanley Classic at Lawrenceburg, Cory Kruseman in the Larry Rice Classic at Bloomington, Ryan Newman in Old Timers Weekend at Winchester, and Terry Pletch, who scored a spectacular victory in the Tony Hulman Classic at Terre Haute after starting at the back of the field. Newman's first series win came when Steele split a fuel tank on the white flag lap.

Frankie Kerr earned a paycheck for $17,000 after winning the Clabber Girl Baking Powder Terre Haute National Open in June. The $96,000 program was the richest in the history of non-winged sprint car racing at the time and included first time feature wins by California's Tony Jones and Arizona's Jerry Coons Jr. Coons' victory was particularly amazing as he trounced the field with a virtuoso performance.

The Terre Haute event also ended Derek Davidson's bid for the 1999 series championship as the early season point leader suffered a broken arm in a prelim and sat out the rest of the season. That led to Dave Steele subbing for him at Salem in a Father's Day appearance during which he broke Jeff Gordon's 30-lap track record.

Brian Gerster earned his first series win at Louisville Motor Speedway, while Jack Hewitt scored his 45th career victory at Lawrenceburg. Bill Rose also visited the winner's circle in the Border Wars V opener at Ohio's Attica Raceway Park, although the three-race point title went to Tracy Hines.

Two-time series champ Brian Tyler, despite leading the standings early in the season, suffered through a lackluster year although he did set a track record at Winchester of 126 mph. Another track record went to Jason McCord, who won the first USAC National Sprint Car race ever held at the Hawkeye Downs oval in Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

HEWITT DOES IT AT LAWRENCEBURG

Lawrenceburg, Indiana.....Jack Hewitt of Troy, Ohio led all 30 laps to win Thursday night's Pennzoil "Indiana Sprint Week" feature at the Lawrenceburg (Ind.) Speedway driving the Print Express/Valvoline/McCreary Special.

Hewitt started alongside pole starter Justin Marvel and took the lead on the opening lap and never looked back. "This was a young man's track tonight," he said in victory lane. "I was in the rocking chair and was just racing the track. Anytime you beat J.J. Yeley and Dave Darland it's well deserved."

Yeley finished second and Darland third, followed by Tony Elliott and Terry Pletch.

Hewitt's victory boosted him into the Pennzoil "Indiana Sprint Week" point lead, while Darland extended his Stoops Freightliner Sprint Car Series lead going into Friday night's Pennzoil "Indiana Sprint Week" race at Bloomington Speedway - the "Larry Rice Classic."
