
WE
CHURCH

Him we proclaim, admonishing every man and teaching every man with all wisdom, so that we may present every man complete in Christ. For this purpose I also labor, striving according to His working, which He works in me in power.

We all must proclaim Christ.

Him we proclaim, admonishing every man and teaching every man with all wisdom, so that we may present every man complete in Christ.

Then Jonah began to go into the city, one day's walk; and he called out and said, "Yet forty days and Nineveh will be overthrown." And the people of Nineveh believed in God; and they called a fast and put on sackcloth, from the greatest to the least of them.

And Yahweh said to me, “Call out all these words in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, ‘Hear the words of this covenant so that you will do them.

Now while Paul was waiting for them at Athens, his spirit was being provoked within him as he was observing the city full of idols. So he was reasoning in the synagogue with the Jews and the God-fearing Gentiles, and in the marketplace every day with those who happened to be present.

We warn of sin while teaching the word of God.

Him we proclaim, admonishing every man and teaching every man with all wisdom, so that we may present every man complete in Christ.

Now the deeds of the flesh are evident, which are: sexual immorality, impurity, sensuality, idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousy, outbursts of anger, selfish ambition, dissensions, factions, envying, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these, of which I forewarn you, just as I have forewarned you, that those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

For am I now seeking the favor of men, or of God? Or am I striving to please men? If I were still trying to please men, I would not be a slave of Christ.

And He Himself gave some as apostles, and some as prophets, and some as evangelists, and some as pastors and teachers, for the equipping of the saints for the work of service, to the building up of the body of Christ, until we all attain to the unity of the faith, and of the full knowledge of the Son of God, to a mature man, to the measure of the stature which belongs to the fullness of Christ, so that we are no longer to be children, tossed here and there by waves and carried about by every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, by craftiness in deceitful scheming, but speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in all aspects into Him who is the head, that is Christ, from whom the whole body, being joined and held together by what every joint supplies, according to the properly measured working of each individual part, causes the growth of the body for the building up of itself in love.

We disciple others with wisdom and for Gods glory.

Him we proclaim, admonishing every man and teaching every man with all wisdom, so that we may present every man complete in Christ.

But if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all generously and without reproach, and it will be given to him.

For Yahweh gives wisdom; From His mouth come knowledge and discernment.

God, having spoken long ago to the fathers in the prophets in many portions and in many ways, in these last days spoke to us in His Son, whom He appointed heir of all things, through whom also He made the worlds,

All Scripture is God-breathed and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness, so that the man of God may be equipped, having been thoroughly equipped for every good work.

Him we proclaim, admonishing every man and teaching every man with all wisdom, so that we may present every man complete in Christ.

We must go and apply this in the real world.

For this purpose I also labor, striving according to His working, which He works in me in power.
